John Longaker To Fight Nielsen At June Election

'Return Govt. To Local Level,' Says Candidate

By TERRY HANSEN

John C. Longaker, prominent Central County businessman, yesterday told The Sun he'll seek the supervisorial post now held by Mel Nielsen at next June's election "to return government to the people."

"A terrific job needs to be done," Longaker said in announcing his election plans.

"I don't think the people have had real representation in the filling of their local needs. The county and state have taken over their identities. This is highly unfair and shouldn't be tolerated."

Three Contra Costa County supervisorial posts are up for election next June. They are Nielsen (District 2); Ed Linscheid (District 4) and Joe Silva (District 5).

At previous Board of Supervisors' meets in Martinez, Silva has said he will not run for re-election.

Nielsen has announced he intends to run again for the District 2 post which covers a large portion of the central county area, including Lafayette and Orinda.

Longaker, who will be a candidate for District 5 supervisor has been in labor relations work for more than 30 years, which has also included arbitrating management-labor disputes and the recruitment of executive personnel.

The labor relations consultant has already dipped his feet into the political world.

Back in 1950 he was elected to the Albany City Council on the basis that he'd get the city tax back on Golden Gate Fields race track. Without the tax, the city was losing an estimated $50,000 in revenue at each race meet.

AFTER ELECTION, Longaker led the fight and got the city tax back on the race track, despite the pressure from many groups and organizations for him to fend away from the attack.

He was also instrumental in getting bond issues voted through, a new library built and improved salary, pension and vacation plans for city workers. Afterward, Longaker also served on the Albany School Board.

At the time Longaker was factory manager of the giant Heinz Co. plant in Berkeley.

He left the firm in 1956, moved to Danville (112 La Questa Drive) and opened up his labor relations offices in Walnut Creek (1677 No. Main Street).

LONGAKER told the Sun that his anounced intentions to run against Nielsen at next June's election has brought him support "from hundreds of persons and groups."

I've been both awed and humbled at the support already thrown my way," he said.

In hoping to become a member of the board of supervisors, Longaker is concerned foremost at the way the control of government has been "withdrawn" from citizens in communities.

"After all, it is the citizens themselves who know what is best for their communities," the candidate said.

He's also a stickler for safety measures and believes a traffic-safety commission should be established.

He wants an ordinance passed that would halt any nepotism by county officials or any official or employe receiving gratuity.

ZONING and ordinance matters greatly concern the blunt-talking, serious-minded businessman and here again he wants their control returned "to the local level."

'I have the time to serve," Longaker said. "If elected, I probably would make the job far more than an eight-hour-a-day position."

JOHN C. LONGAKER
To Become Candidate

Asked about his health, Longaker answered, "Before I was elected in Albany I visited 5200 homes. I have just as much stamina today."

The candidate's wife, Madeline, is an employe of the Acalanes High School District.

They have three children, John Jr., a graduate of Diablo Valley College and now emloyed by Safeway Stores; Mrs. Philip Hamblin whose husband is a student at Oregon State College, and Gael, 14, who attends San Ramon High School.

Incorp. Study Now Near Report Stage

All that remains for the Orinda Incoporation Study Group to do is putting together the recommendations of its sub-committees.

This is what Chairman Walter Treanor reported to the board of directors of the Orinda Association at its meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at Orinda School.

OTHER REPORTS included the upcoming election for six new directors and the first edition of the association's news letter.

Treanor said that he was in October "hopeful" the incorporation" could be put together in one meeting early in October. If so, it will be submitted to the board for discussion at its next meeting, October 28.

At this time, President Harry Fledderman explained that the board would decide if it were a good report and if so "what will we do with it." This meeting will not be to debate the merits of incorporation, Fledderman stated emphatically.

The report will be kept confidential until the board determines what step to take next.

"THE INCORPORATION committee has had its last work session and a report next month looks good," said Treanor. He explained that the initial draft had been made and projecting from there would be specific assignments.

The 10-man committee has been meeting since early spring. Members of the self-described "objective fact finding" group are: Treanor, Donald Manuel, Bruce Howard, Vic Kingston, James Keating, Charles Yegge, Clarence Betz, John Banister, John Buchanan and Sam Weede. Fledderman is an ex-officia member.

CHARLES LEGGE, chairman of the civic affairs committee, said it would nominate Oct. 21 two candidates from each of the association's nine districts. He noted that six out of nine directorships would be up for election. Five of these are due to expiration of the term.

However, A. L. Peterson, the association's director in charge of tax matters, is moving from the area. It was decided not to appoint a director to fill his unexpired term, as the election is so close at hand.

THE THREE directors whose terms do not expire are James Halloran, James R. Lucas and Walter Treanor.

Those of Fledderman, Jack Cutter, Bruce Hoffe, James Keating and William Brobeck will expire.

Legge referred to the civic affairs committee's last meeting as "a comprehensive talk by Supervisor Mel Nielsen" which received "comprehensive coverage in The Sun."

Legge said that at the Oct. 21 meeting, the library board wolud make a presentation on its plans for expansion.

JAMES HALLORAN, director in charge of communications, announced that the first association news letter should be ready about October 10. The second edition is scheduled for November 24.

Editing the paper is Robert Desmond of Orinda, eminent newspaperman and professor of journalism at the University of California, Berkeley.

Halloran said that he is seeking a man or woman to solicit advertisements for the news letter.

DIRECTOR James R. Lucas stated that the E. I. de Laveaga Memorial Committee formed by the Chamber Commerce would meet and decide upon a site.

They were considering three sites—at the library near the post office or the bus turnout. The latter had the edge, Lucas said.

He said that Orinda will sponsor an open forum on juvenile delinquency sometime this fall. It will be conducted by Dr. George Prlain.

The association would support this project in any way it could, the board agreed.

Why An Election?

A meeting to inform civic leaders of Orinda about the January school bond election will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in Pine Grove School.

Among the 35 members of the community invited are the presidents of Orinda Rotary, Lions, Chamber of Commerce, Orinda Association and its subcommittees, and the presidents of the parents clubs in the district.

THE $1,650,000 bond election, was recently set by the board of trustees for the school district for January 8, 1964.

Superintendent Joseph Sheaff will be chairman for the meeting. Its purpose is "to acquaint the people with the resons why we're calling for the election," he said.

Facts and figures that more classrooms will be needed between now and 1972 will be presented, Sheaff said. "Authorizing the bonds before the district needs to sell them is good business . . . it has been the practice of the board of trustees to do it this way for several years."

MONDAY'S MEETING will be the first of a series of meetings to clarify the reasons for a bond election, Sheaff stated. "We want to solicit the support of the community as the trustees can't do it alone. We need everyone's support."

While such meetings are always public, the superintendent noted that it was to inform the leaders of civic groups, who in turn would pass the information along.

Among those expected to be present are: W. W. Wiggins, chairman of the Orinda division of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors; School Board President J. Gordon Ainsworth and trustees Richard Bartle, Dr. John Boulware, Mrs. Ruth Gilwee, Mrs. Gretchen Howe-; Orinda Association President Harry Fledderman; Civic Affairs Committee Chairman Charles Legge; Al Winson, Kenon White, Jr., Stan Massie; and the following presidents of the parents clubs:

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert LaVigne, Del Rey; Dr. Robert Bartlett, Glorietta; Andrew Wolfe, Inland Valley Elementary; Dr. Edward Senz, Orinda Union; Jess Larkin, Sleepy Hollow; Walter Treanor, I. V. Intermediate, and Gordon Martin, Pine Grove.

He Glides Through The Air With The Greatest Of Ease

Architect Robert Klemmedson's name is well known in these parts for the many buildings he has designed. Among them is Santa Maria Center, at Santa Maria Way and Orinda Way, where Klemmedson has his office.

In soaring circles, however, Klemmedson's claim to fame is that he is one of the top 10 in the field. In 1962, at El Mirage, Klemmedson finished ninth in the national contest.

BECAUSE OF THIS, he was selected as one of the 15 for the United States soaring team which competed in Argentina in February.

He and 11 other members of the team went along to support the pilots and do maintenance work. Klemmedson was gone six weeks in all.

He keeps his "sail plane," which is a refined, high performing glider, at the sky sailing airport in Fremont. He manages to break away and go soaring about twice a month.

Rodney Johnson, who is pictured with Klemmedson in Argentina, set the official distance record of 535 miles. Klemmedson's record is 341 miles.

HE BECAME interested in the sport in the 1930's while a student at junior college in Phoenix, Ariz. A famous German pilot, Luwen Barringer, spoke to the students. Klemmedson became interested and Barringer taught him how to glide.

The hobby is not demanding if you participate just for fun, says Klemmedson. "However, when you go in for competition, it does take a lot of time."

DOWN ON the ground, rooting for him, are his wife and two children. Ron is 13 and Kim, 6. The family home is at 77 El Gavilan.

During World War II, Klemmedson was a fighter pilot, flying a P-38.

Knight's Boys' Club Is Banned At Miramonte

The Knights, a boys' club at Miramonte High School, was banned this week by school administrators.

Although it has been unlawful since its inception, with Miramonte's first class, the Knights has flourished from time to time as an "underground" group.

THE KNIGHT jacket considered a status symbol by students, was seen more and more in public places.

A recent initiation hazing stunt, with neophytes in their undershorts, took place in the vicinity of the school.

It was common knowledge, among students, that prominent members of the student body were members.

Wednesday, parents received the following letter from Principal James A. Lewis and Dean of Boys Robert J. Callan:

"It has come to our attention that the 'Knights' organization has been activated.

"This club, and any other secret club, is strictly illegal according to state law, 'Sec. 10604 . . . It is unlawful for any pupil to join or become a member of any fraternity or secret club' and Board Policy, and we are concerned that our students may be hurting their chances for sports, college, or any type of school recommendation by joining such group.

"IF YOUR BOY is a 'secret club' member we would appreciate your notifying us at once. There will be no penalty if notification is given at once and membership is dropped.

"Should we find out later that your son is a member he will not be allowed to participate in any school activity and will receive no recommendation from this school.

JAMES A. LEWIS"

First Bear For Andy de Grassi

Andy de Grassi, 20, killed his first bear Saturday. He was on a bear hunt with his father and a party from Palo Alto.

The 150 pound California black bear was hit with Andy's first shot. It dropped out of air 80 feet, from a tree.

ANDY IS THE son of Mr. and Mrs. Al H. de Grassi, 9 Brookbank Road, Orinda. His father is a member of the board of directors for the Miramonte Parents Club.

The bear was taken at French Meadow, on the middle fork of the American River. Lee Brooks of Palo Alto, a professional bear and board hunter and guide, arranged the trip. Dogs were employed.

THE GROUP goes out every weekend. Two of the men in the party hunted with bows and arrows.

$144,626 Check Signed For New Moraga School

Moraga School District's third school site in Diablo Estates got the final okay from the board of trustees, Monday night.

A $144,626 check for the purchase was approved by the trustees. Acquisition is being financed through state aid for the complete new elementary plant.

Plans for constructon on the 14½ acre hillside site have been drawn up by architectural firm Marshall, Field and Erencrantz.

Superintendent William Knight reported that the summer school enrollment of 322 would enable the district to "break even" on expenses through state aid.

Enrollment was up 89 over last year.

Heinz Coordinator Speaks to Rotary

James Davison, sales coordinator for Heinz Company was the speaker at Orinda Wednesday. He gave a history of the company, and told of its policy.

Fuller-Eyeman Withdraw Request

Through Attorney James Ring, Fuller and Eyeman Construction Company withdrew their request to establish eight lots under one-half acre on an Overhill Road hilltop.

The action took place yesterday noon at the county board of supervisors.

'The Post Office And How It Affects Moraga'

"The Post Office and How It Affects Moraga" will be the topic of the Moraga Valley Community Club's meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at Camino Pablo School.

President Richard Kostyrka has made trips to Sacramento and written numerous letters to Washington, D.C., to further the community club's effort to "hold Moraga together."

SINCE THE formation of the Rheem post office in 1956, it has been felt by many residents that the identity of the community is split.

A complete split of Moraga in the very near future will be one of the facets covered at the meeting.

Invited to present "the other side" is Mortimer Withoft, a vice president of Rheem California Land Company. It was the main instigator in setting up a separate post office, according to Kostyrka.

A STUDY committee for the community club recently completed its report on the postal situation in Moraga. Some of the topics which it will review are:

Moraga and its historical past . . . Why the name of the post office is so important to an unincorporated community . . . . Changes in identity in Moraga which are taking place now due to the post office.

Also on the program will be a brief review of the upcoming election to borrow state funds for the Moraga schools. (See story, page 4.)

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

A Contemporary Town . . .

THE NEW YORKER used to epitomize the commuter by cartoons showing the homecoming husband being met at the train by a wife waving a pitcher of martinis . . . such was the way of the Westport Special or life at the end of the Long Island line.

CALIFORNIA has changed all that; just take a long look at the bus disbarging its daily dozens down at the Crossroads. Like paper dolls cut from the same pattern, Orinda husbands disembark, all in their dull browns, blacks & greys, all discomforted, w/beaded brows & a grey flannel feel to their hot throats after the long trip home.

BUT LOOK AGAIN! They may look like similar cut-outs walking along, one behind the other, to their cars, but there isn't a sloppy poppy or a bad looker among 'em. A handsome lot they are; neat, neat, however beat.

Do you ever think about the daily breadwinner returning home to an empty house, because wifey's still playing bridge . . . or to a TV dinner simply because she was too long at the Phairs' gift-browsing? Or all day on the phone?

THIS, of sorts, a hats off to the homecoming husbands after taking a long loving look at them this afternoon as they emerged from their workday cocoons into the Utopia or Never-Ever Land that is Orinda & that most of 'em never have enough time to enjoy.

IT'S worse in the morning. When you think what the Commuter husband, either by car or by bus, has to tackle! The traffic jam & hazards take place as early as seven when most of us aren't even out of bed yet (speak for yourself, Mrs. M.)

ANYHOW, if I were Queen, I'd buy 'em all their own pedicopters, pint-sized helicopters that hied 'em to work on their own pvt. airlanes, & even brought 'em home for lunch if they liked. They mgiht have time to spade, patch a roof or trim a tree, a few things some men would rather come home to than the cocktail party circuit which is in full swing right now.

OH MEN, OH WOMEN! OH WELL! We'll all try better to appreciate our warriors who go off to work leaving their ladies behind 'em . . .

For instance, Like last Tues.'s hot spell when you're wandering around in your swim suit & still uncomfortable, have you ever thought what it's like making the office routine or rounds in a collar & tie & that new fall suit from Brooks Bros?

There's a new game circulating the cocktail set: Guests are asked to scribble status symbols on the cocktail napkins & then the host reads them aloud . . . Something like this: Color yourself STATUS if you've a swimming pool, a T-Bird or similar sports car, a club membership, a pair of french poodles, a third TV set, a third car, a planned winter vacation to someplace like Les Alps, a pvt. phone for the youngsters, someone who does your cleaning, cooking & child care, a case of Scotch in the cellar, etc. . . .

Then color your friends green & your husband WONDERFUL!? . . . & the contemporary card that dreamed up such a game, color him or her stupid. Or silly.

I am a Camera . . .

CONTEMPORARY CAMERA: The Clark Wallace's parties, as viewed by the passerby through the expansive glass windows or patio fence, remind one of a NYorker cover by, say, Alajalov . . . The ladies are always so slim & Voguey; the men Very' Suburbia . . .

AT ORINDA Country Club, Mabel Powell pulling from her purse a 6 ft. long menu listing the Danish sandwiches offered at Oscar Davidson's in Copenhagen. Which was where she was part of her summer's tour . . .

Marge Rieger determinedly bound for a bowling session at Rheem . . . School Boarder Gretchen Howe looking fresh & jaunty at 5 p.m. when the rest of us looked limp after Tues.'s humidity . . .

YOU didn't know architect Robert Klemmedson was a glider pilot till you read it in this week's front page story in The Sun? Neither did I! Local architects Lee Stuart Darrow, Ian MacKinlay & John Rector Lucas recently copped honors w/The Best from the East Bay Masonry Institute . . .

The Darrows, by the way, are bound for Mexico soon & got shot (for typhoid) on that hottest day leaving them w/a whoozy reaction . . .

At Monterey's Jazz Festival, son Chip said "Gee, there's a Morgan just like the Graces!" . . . & it WAS the Graces, w/Bob & Marge having a fling for themselves . . . He's a top White House exec. The White House in S.F., not D.C.

FRANKIE SCHWEDEN, looking marvelously recovered from her nasty auto smash-up was dishing up smiles w/coffee & donuts at the festival's Musician's Wives coffee booth fund. Tom Schwedhelm tooling around w/Arne Groennings & Jon Donham & Dick Silva more in the merry musical-go-round.

Carl Schwedhelm, Frankie's husband, who is well-known in the Music World and was also proprietor of the Patio Music Shop, has now taken up the baton to lead his own ork at parties, dances, benefits, etc. The former Orindan's number is 932-0579, Pleasant Hill, in case you care to jot it down for a future dance-date on the calendar.

GOOD NEWS AT Pine Grove School: Thanks to Mr. Comer & assistants, the umpteen usual 250 rules have been rolled into one that comes up like "The Golden Rule" in the new student handbook. Much easier for the kids to remember & follow through that way . . .

THINGS TO REMEMBER: Orinda Lions' deadline for rummage donations (for their Oct. 5 sale at Millers in Berk.) is Oct. 2 . . . Please call Bob Johnson at Central Valley Bank, CL. 4-4981 or June Hale, 376-6845 for pick-up, a timely tip if you're cleaning out closets these days.

BUT HOLD THE BOOKS & bring them to the depots (Ogden's, Wells Fargo, Sprouse-Reitz & Village Lucky's) for Friends of Orinda Library's forthcoming Book Fair. Pocketbooks accepted.

WILSON Riles, exec. secty of the State Commission on Equal Employment Opportunity for Teachers, will be next Friday night's speaker when Orinda Council for Civic Unity meets at Ok Springs Clubhouse w/a social hour first . . .

AND IF you saw "Mutiny on the Bounty," I hope you didn't come in when pix was ¾ through & leave like us, at a little past the half point. Which means we sat saw almost 3 hrs of of the show but never DID see the real mutiny. Wha' happened? We flipped over FLIPPER, however, & did manage to see the whole of that one.

Orindans Trek To AAUW Workshop In Salinas

Representatives from the Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women will be among those from other California Branches attending a Fall workshop in Salinas today through Sunday.

A survey of new branch organization patterns and study programs will be covered and State division leaders headed by Dr. Margaret C. Fagin, president of California State Division of the A.A.U.W., will present the State Division focus for 1963-64.

THREE MEMBERS of the Orinda branch who will be attending serve on state committees.

They are Mrs. Arnold Anderson, local branch president, who is a legislative liaison member of the implementation committee; Mrs. Richard Bartle, who serves on the state fellowship committee; and Mrs. Orval Grigsby who is on the committee for education.

Others attending are the Mmes. Harry Howe, Lyman Lorenson, E. J. Hartman, Thomas Deahl, Ellsworth Meteer, Wallace Dodson, and Mrs. Grace Casey.

AT THE GENERAL meeting of the Orinda branch of A.A.U.W. in September, members had the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Neville T. Massa, chairman of the association's fellowship program and also a past president of the state division, present "The New Look in the A.A.U.W."

THE CULTURAL interest section of the local branch will meet October 2 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ching Tung Liu.

JOHN ALSBERG of the Nicole Mezzanine Art Gallery in Berkeley will speak on Picasso and also bring an exhibit of ceramics and original graphics by the artist.

One of the special activities of the Safari group will be a trip to the Greek outdoor theatre with their families to see the San Francisco Opera Assocation present Verdi's comic opera "Falstaff." Requests for tickets must be in by September 30.

Unique Teachers In-Program

The board of trustees for the Moraga School District heard a report on a unique in-service program in which the 30 teachers of the district are participating. The trustees met Monday at 7:45 p.m. at Camino Pablo School.

Explaining the program, which was inaugurated Friday, were Superintendent William Knight, Camino Pablo Principal Charles Toll and Rheem School Principal Robert Trask.

MORAGA SCHOOL children had the day off last Friday while the teachers participated in the seminar. Two more such meetings are planned during the school year.

Following is Superintendennt Knight's resume of the program:

Thirty teachers and administrators of the Moraga School District participated in an all-day in-service seminar Friday.

One part of the seminar consisted of outlining and discussion of a program designed to identify exceptional children in the kindergarten and primary grades.

WE ARE trying to discover children at an early age who may have unusual intellectual ability or who may be having learning problems.

The program of foreign language was also a topic for dis- the seventh and eighth grade cussion under the leadership of Spanish teacher, Betty Adamkewech, many new songs and dances were learned by the lower grade teachers.

Miss Adamkewech also teaches Spanish to the Moraga teachers through auspices of the adult education program of Contra Costa Junior College.

THE DISTRICT in-service program is unique in that leadership for the program comes from the teachers rather than from the administration. Also, the children are excused on each workday so that the energies of the teacher may be directed toward the work shop rather than meeting after a full day in the classroom.

This meeting was the first of three meetings planned this year to stimulate instruction, within the district, to encourage teacher growth, and provide better coordination of effort between the schools.

Family of the Week

ALBE AND DICK KOSTRYKA WITH JOEL

E Pluribus Moraga

BY THE TIME this is in print, little Joel May have a new baby brother or sister. Right now he's the center of attention in the small family circle of Richard and Albina (Albe) Kostyrka who are anticipating the family addition with great excitement.

A NEWCOMER who plunged into community life is Dick Kostyrka, the man behind the move to retain Moraga as a solid and single community. Like that Mr. Smith who went to Washington, Dick has talked with many people and traveled to Sacramento in the hopes of keeping the historic area that is Moraga "a whole".

"History is great, as in the name Moraga, but it's the future that's even more important" observes the Moragan man pledged to civic leadership.

So dedicated is Kostyrka in his pursuit of both correct progress and preservation of the community as a complete unit that those who work with him in the area call him a "shining light."

He's president of the Moraga Valley Community Club to which he brings the past experience of having served as a treasurer for a small suburb and village near Chicago.

A sales analyst for Kaiser Aluminum in Oakland Dick did his undergraduate work at Loyola University in Chicago, received a later degree from Northwestern University.

He's one of those "Do It Yourselfers" and has expanded the master bedroom to a sizeable solarium with both his and wife Albe's green thumbs producing a dramatic wall of greenery.

Furnishings are mainly Danish contemporary, but the garden of their home has been given the Oriental treatment.

Dick constructed the oriental pool, fashioned a bridge and a garden of bonsais to match its Japanesey flavor.

And he's a skilled craftsman when it comes to constructing furniture as evidenced by the handsome table over which the family trio presided during picture taking.

ALBE SAYS no sooner was the photographer off and out than they were deluged by summer visitors from Illinois. The Kostyrkas, prior to Moraga, lived in Chicago Heights. She attended DePaul University in Chicago and worked for some time as a medical lab technician.

WHEN it comes to family growth or community growth, you might say the Kostyrkas are firm believers in "E Pluribus Unum." In Unity there is strength . . . and all Moragans feeling likewise are urged to attend next Monday night's meeting of Moraga Community Club, 8 p.m. at the Camino Pablo School.

Miramonte Mirror

Matador's First League Game Tonite-Wear White

By CAROL MEYER and FRAN OBRECHT

TONIGHT MIRAMONTE meets its first league contenders on hosting Alhambra's field at 8 p.m. Let's see everyone in white and at the game by 7:30 so we can have an organized rooting section Let's keep that Sportsmanship Trophy in mind and have a cooperative rooting section!

After last Friday night's opening game of the season, the St. Stephen's dance was a popular gathering place for the rooters. Some of the kids seen dancing and "living it up" were Ann Gompertz, Mike Shepherd, Toni Ayres, Dick Blair, Sharon McKenois, Mike Davis, Chas Brock, Lani Freeman, Fred Neighbor, Bruce Nickerson, and many, many more. Thank you Father Calavan and those concerned with the dance.

THE FOOTBALL game was not the only scene of action Friday night. A group of senior girls (why weren't you at the game?) gathered at Lani Freeman's house for a pot-luck dinner. Those seen stuffing their faces with the deilcious??? food were Chris Conners, Karen Kahl, Trish Bascom, Linda McCullan, Merrilee Snell, Susie Colwell, Betty Tranburg, Leslie Smith, Carol Hughes, Anne Cunningham, Eleanor Larson, Katy Dullem, Kate Ellis, and Ann Gompertz. After dinner Susie, Merrilee, Leslie, and Carol headed for the Bear's Lair while the others went to the Walnut Festival.

WALNUT FESTIVAL was also a popular spot over the weekend. Many of the Miramonteens who were looking a little "green" after some of the rides were John Cooke and Kay Dunbar Jr., Jay Ainsworth and Donna Salet, Brian Madden and Chris Walstrom, Steve Hampton and Barb Schuster, Steve Greathouse and Bonny Beasley, Bob Martin and Terry Palmquist, Jim Lewis and Beth Shepherd, Pam Freguson, Anne Cunningham., Judy Trumbly, Linda Alm, Steve Thamen, Neal Pearson, and Butch Workman.

Slumber parties seem to be coming back into style now. The Pom Pon Girls, starting the year off righ,t had their first The Pom Pon Girls, starting the year off right, had their first slumber party of the season at Garin Nattresses' house last Friday night. If they follow the pattern of last years' pom pon girls it certainly won't be their last slumber party!!!

THE SOPHOMORE girls also prove to be no slouches in the party line. Using the excuse of a surprise party for Georgina Smith, they managed to all get together at Chris Hecathorne's for an unslumber party. Those who were there were Gail Valpreda, Sis Boyle, Jill McCaffery, Nancy Miller, and Pam Beckett. Seems that Gail and Pam were caught napping Saturday afternoon—could it be that you didn't get any sleep girls??

On rainy Sunday the Dianas held a swim-barbecue party. The rain didn't seem to dampen anyone's spirits though. Those seen avoiding the drizzle were Sandy Carlisle, Carol Mansonen, Jeanne Quinn, Betty Tranburg, Susie Colwell, Dianne Hammond, Tona Von Eggert, Karen Sears, Debby Manard, Joan Diricks, Ann Waters, and honorary guest Carol Meyer.

FLASH—Homecoming is only one week away with Del Valle as our rival. Our student body officers have been planning this big event for a long time and finally the gig date is almost here. Those working on special committees are: Publicity, Karen Kahl, Jay Ainsworth, and Fran Obrecht; half time, Mike Davis; dance, Crissy Voll; decorations, Carol Mansonen; bids, Nancy Allen; refreshments, Toni Ayres and Beth Shepard; royalty, Judy Zimmerlin and Judy Lisner.

DON'T FORGET tonight's game with Alhambra on their field. The kickoff is at 8 p.m. and be sure to wear white!

If any of you have any information concerning school of local events and would like to see it in the Mirror, please phone one of us—Carol Meyer 376-4939 or Fran Obrecht 254-0233. We would greatly appreciate any information you could give us!

Homecoming For Miramonte To Be Friday

Next Friday Miramonte High School will host Del Valle in its second annual homecoming game.

The game will begin at 3:30 p. m. with special half-time activities which will include the announcement of the 1963 homecoming queen. She, a senior, will be chosen by the student body in an election Thursday.

Her attendants and the class princesses will ride on floats made by the sponsoring classes.

Serving on committees for homecoming are: Karen Kahl, Jay Ainsworth, Fran Obrecht, Mike Davis, Crissy Voll, Carol Mansonen, Nancy Allen, Toni Ayres, Beth Shepard, Judy Zimmerlin and Judy Lisner.

Bumgarner Reports To Navy Pre-Flight

Naval Aviation Cadet Walter S. Bumgarner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Bumgarner of 30 Ardilla Road, Orinda, recently reported to the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, for training at naval pre-flight school.

Upon completing the 16-week pre-flight and officer indoctrination course he will be transferred to the nearby Naval Auxiliary Air Station Saufley Field for primary flight instruction leading to his designation as a naval aviator.

RICHARD D. RUSSELL, Orinda, was recently appointed manager for photocopy products of SCM corporation. He will make his headquarters in San Francisco's western zone executive offices.

Hilltop Garden Club Elects, Plans Program

The Hilltop Garden Club of Orinda recently held its first meeting of the 1963-1964 season at the home of Mrs. George Burtt, 20 Southwood Drive.

The program for the coming year was presented and discussed.

The following officers and committee chairmen were introduced:

Mrs. Chris Madsen, president; Mrs. Russell Bentson, vice president; Mrs. Edward Johannessen, recording secretary; Mrs. Floyd Foster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Lord, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. Russell Bentson, program; Mrs. Floyd Foster, membership; Mrs. A. P. Reck, conservation; Mrs. Gordon Markley, philanthropy; Mrs. Estelle V. Walker, publicity.

Welcome Wagon Holds Meeting

The executive board meeting of the Orinda-Moraga Welcome Wagon Club was held at the home of Mrs. Glen Furlaw.

The next club meeting will be a luncheon Thursday at The Lafayette. Social time will start at 11:30 a.m. with luncheon scheduled for noon.

Paul G. Christoperlos of Mitchum Jones and Templeton will be the guest speaker.

All newcomers to the Orinda-Moraga area who have had a Welcome Wagon call are invited to attend. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Robert Stewart, 254-0547.

Assoc. Looks For Ad Solicitor

The Orinda Association's new organ, which will make its bow in the near future, is looking for a man or woman to solicit advertising, according to James Halloran, director of communications.

Anyone who could devote some spare time to this project can earn a commission besides helping the community project, said Halloran.

Those interested, phone Halloran at 569-3326, days; or 254-5460, evenings.

MALLARDS

The mallard duck is the most abundant wild duck in the world, according to the National Automobile Club.

Hats Off To...

Walt Treanor, Orinda Assoc. & I.V.I. Pres.

TIP YOUR FALL fedoras, please, in the direction of Walter Treanor who serves his community well.

A member of the board of directors of Orinda Association, Walt is also heading the Orinda Incorporation Study Group. This objective, fact-finding 10-man committee, appointed by the association, is pursuing the desirability of incorporation for Orinda.

A MODEST and most unassuming man, like the one Rex Harrison sings about, Walt is a fellow with a flourish for getting things done. He has also been tapped to take over the gavel for the Inland Valley Intermediate Parents' Club as its president for the forthcoming year.

A general attorney for Western Pacific Railroad, his background includes having served as city attorney for several outlying suburbs of St. Louis. This experience is an asset to our local governing board.

A NATIVE New Yorker. a real Manhattan product, Treanor earned his law degree at Washington University in St. Louis.

He lives with his wife Betty and two youngsters on Keith Drive. Son Stephen is a freshman at Miramonte and daughter Susan, a seventh grader at I.V.—Two good reasons for his interest in the future of this community —M.M.

Opera Star Will Perform At Fete

Leontyne Price, world-renowned opera star now appearing with the San Francisco Opera company, and the children's choir of the Orinda Community church will form a backdrop of sacred music to the 1963 United Crusade Kickoff dinner on Tuesday at the Oakland Auditorium Arena.

Taking time from her heavy schedule, the famed soprano will offer the invocation at the gala gathering, singing "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

She will be accompanied by Bay Area pianist William Duncan Allen, who resides in Walnut Creek. He is a longtime friend of Miss Price and helped to arrange for her appearance at the dinner.

Kids Art Classes To Open

Children's art classes sponsored by the Orinda Art Center will open next week at Sleepy Hollow, Glorietta and Orinda Union schools. Each session will be taught for an eight-week period.

THIRD, FOURTH and fifth graders will meet on Thursday, from 3:15 to 4:30 p.m. beginning October 3 in the all-purpose room of Sleepy Hollow School. Mrs. Molly Poupeney will be instructor.

At Glorietta School, third, fourth and fifth graders will be taught by Mrs. Poupeney each Saturday morning from 10 o'clock to 11:30 beginning October 5.

SIXTH, SEVENTH and eighth graders will meet with Mrs. Patricia Fearey for advanced art work each Monday, from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., beginning September 30 at Orinda School.

Fee of $6 must be paid at the time of registration, which will be accepted on the opening day of each eight-week session. Youngsters either should wear play clothes or bring a smock.

If there are any vacancies in the classes, a few second graders will be accepted.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Cylos Dunsmoor at 254-0676 or Mrs. J. C. Maggini at 254-8469.

$1 Million Budget For Mental Health

Contra Costa County will have a budget of almost $1 million to care for the mentally ill for the next year.

At Tuesday's meeting the Board of Supervisors approved such a budget after hearing that the county can now pick up a 75 per cent subsidy from the state on its mental health program.

Prior to the session the Contra Costa County Mental Health Association had reported that 46 persons had taken their lives during the first eight months of this year.

The central area led with 26 deaths. Most of the suicides were married men and women in the 30 to 39 year bracket.

In the report the association stated that it has started up the Contra Costa Suicide Prevention project. The number at 939-3232 is answered on a 24-hour, 7-day basis.

At Tuesday's supervisors' meeting, County Hospital Director Dr. George Degnan reported that counties can now obtain more subsidy from the state for mental health programs because the state is curtailing the construction of state mental facilities. The state favors more treatment be given on the local level.

HE TOLD the supervisors that Contra Costa County is doing more than any other county for the mentally retarded.

The hospital director said the county is particularly known for its two programs for the treatment of mentally retarded children.

They are labeled "operation respite" and the county's "mental day care centers."

THE RESPITE programs are based on the observation that many parents of mentally retarded children can care for them if given a rest or respite from the duties for short periods of time. During these periods the county takes care of the mentally retarded child, usually for a few months.

The mental day care centers are run as schools. They attempt to teach the child to do things that will make him more productive and acceptable to society.

RED GARTER—San Francisco's "Red Garter" band will participate in the Broadway merchants' 12th Birthday Sale next Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Lucky Store—Joseph Magnin area, Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

Who Uses ANC Funds

California's composite Aid to Needy Children family consists of a 33-year-old mother who was an early school dropout and her three children. This family gets by on less than $200 per month, does not own its own home, and has personal property valued at less than $150.

This typical picture is drawn from a recently-released report by the State Departmetn of Social Welfare on the social and economic characteristics of the ANC caseload. A four per cent sampling of 86,400 families on the rolls in July, 1962, was the basis for the survey.

Some of the study findings:

1. THE AVERAGE number of persons in the ANC family is four—a mother and three children.

2. Six out of 10 ANC families are members of minority groups, mainly Negro or Mexican-American.

3. One out of each 13 families has six or more children.

4. The average time on relief is two years, with one-third receiving aid less than one year.

5. Two out of every three children are legitimate, i.e., their parents were married.

6 HALF OF the families have no illegitimate children.

7. One mother out of eight is employed, mostly in the unskilled or low remunerative occupations such as service work, domestic help, etc.

8. Only one mother in five has as much as a high school education.

9. Average age of the mothers is 33.

10. EIGHTY-FIVE per cent of the cases qualify because of the father's absence from the home; 5 per cent due to father's death, and 9 per cent because of father's disability.

11. In two-thirds of the absent father cases, the whereabouts of the father is known.

12. On welfare standards, a typical ANC family of four would be expected to live on $204 per month, not including medical care.

13. The average public aid grant is $161 per month. Maximum grant limitations require one family in five to live on even less than needed according to the welfare standard.

14. Twenty per cent of the families have outside income and this averages about $25 per month.

15. SOME 46 per cent of the families have outside income, and this averages $79 per month. Source of this income is usually absent father's support, a stepfather, unemployment insurance or disability benefits.

15. Two-thirds of the families own nothing except their clothing and household goods. Personal property owned by the other third generally consists of an automobile, life insurance or cash, with value averaging $147.

BARTD Challenged About New Soil, Train Tests

"BARTD's many recent press announcements about new soil and train 'tests' and the appointment continuously of so-called 'experts' is calculated propaganda intended to establish they are 'well on their way'," said Al Fried, the public information officer for Citizens for Reconsideration of Rapid Transit Taxes.

"What they are doing is practically meaningless," he continued. "BARTD is long years away from providing any service to the public. Actually they may never, yet they continue to spend millions of your tax dollars on worthless 'tests'."

Fried said, "BARTD still has no specific time table—they're guessing they'll begin operation 6 to 8 years from now. BARTD still has no technical design of a specific train on paper (even after six years of operation and spending over $6,000,000 of your tax monies)."

"Typical BARTD misinformation recently released to the Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill-Concord area promised unlimited prosperity resulting from the $8 million 'test' to be made there (it will 'test' whether trains run on tracks," said Fried.

"Besides," said Fried, "BARTD is only giving Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill-Concord a token expenditure equalling about one years' taxes taken from the area, while they must pay back in taxes 60 times the amount over the years for this Toonerville Folly'."

He then asked, "Wouldn't these Central Contra Costa County cities be better keeping 'at home' this $480,000,000 tax monies and be able to use for other needed local projects such as schools, civic projects, water, etc."

Nonsuit Verdict Rendered In Favor Of County

A judgment of nonsuit was granted in the county's favor upon the motion of the district attorney relative to a petition for a writ of mandate to compel issuance of a building permit and recession of an ordinance amending the building code, according to District Attorney John A. Nejedly.

Plaintiffs in the case were John J. Prentice, William Diehl, J. Ronald Findleton and Walter Lucas, coordinated planning associates.

RESPONDENTS were R. J. Kraintz, county building inspector; the board of supervisors and the County of Contra Costa.

The petitioners challenged the building inspector's interpretation of the building code resulting in denial of a building permit for a 20-unit, $250,000 apartment building in Rheem.

The board of supervisors passed an emergency ordinance on June 18, 1963, in order to clarify alleged ambiguities in the building code which was challenged on the ground that no emergency existed.

The board of sueprvisors had been advised by the building inspector that if the apartment was constructed according to the plaintiff's plans, there would be potential hazard to life and property from fire.

DURING the course of the trial expert testimony was adduced on questions of code interpretation and fire safety.

The district attorney's motion for nonsuit was granted at the close of the plaintiffs' case when it developed upon cross-examination by the district attorney that the architect had not approved the plans as required by state law and did not in fact wish that a building permit be issued on the basis of the plans then on file with the building inspector.

The trial, which lasted five days, was held in the superior court, Judge Wakefield Taylor presiding.

Attorney for the defense was Francis X. Driscoll while Stanley K. Dodson represented the district attorney's office.

Broadway Merchants To Hold 12th Birthday Sale

The Walnut Creek Broadway Merchants announce their colossal 12th Birthday Celebration Sale starting Thursday.

The sale will run from Thursday through Oct. 12.

To help publicize the big celebration, the merchants have come up with a unique cash give-away.

All persons born in October are urged to register at any Broadway store and get a free ticket making them eligible for cash awards ranging from $5 to $50.

THE WINNERS are also entitled to a delicious birthday cake from Stinnetts Bakery.

The drawing for the many cash awards will be held in front of the Lucky Store at 3 p.m., Oct. 12.

Tickets for the drawing may be obtained during the celebration sale commencing Thursday.

The first cash prize will be $50.

There will be a second cash prize of $25; third, $20; fourth, $15, and fifth of $10.

Seven five-dollar prizes will also be given away.

One of the highlights of the gala celebration will be entertainment furnished by San Francisco's Red Garter Band scheduled to appear Friday, 7 to 9 p.m.

The seven-member band will perform in the Lucky - Joseph Magnin area.

Free cake and coffee will also be given to those attending the birthday event this coming Friday.

John Davis To Address Farm Bureau Women

John Davis, probation officer of the Martinez Juvenile Hall, and Cecil Landrum, superintendent of the Byron Boys' Ranch, will address the county committee of Contra Costa Farm Bureau Women at Farm Bureau Hall, 5554 Clayton Road, Concord, Oct. 4.

Mrs. Lorens Foard of Danville, county chairman, will call the business session to order at 10 a.m.

The luncheon and program will be sponsored by the Oak Grove unit of FBW under the leadership of Mrs. Eugene Day of Walnut Creek, chairman of the group.

HOME ADVISOR Mary Ryon Williams will ask for suggestions for the anunal Christmas Idea Day to be held Nov. 14 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Concord Armory.

The event is to be staged by Farm Bureau Women and Home Extension groups — a big free show for all to enjoy.

MRS. FOARD will preview the important statewide annual meeting of California Farm Bureau Women, Oct. 8 and 9. honoring Berkeley. Headquarters will be in the Shattuck Hotel, and meetings will be at the FBW Building with a banquet at the Berkeley City Club.

Unemployment Program Hits Financial Snag

Califoria's unemployment insurance program appears to be moving into financial difficulty, said J. Richard Glade, executive vice president of the Unemployment Insurance Association.

Glade said that, "In spite of record high unemployment taxes imposed on California industry and record high employment in the state, department of employment officials as well as labor and management representatives, are nervously watching developments in the key months of September and October.

The UI Association, comprised of California commercial and industrial firms and associations have been waging a battle against the continuous increases in unemployment taxes and abuses in unemployment payments.

For the first seven months of 1963, Glade revealed, California's unemployment benefits have totaled $311 million; some $37 million more than the employer taxes and interest paid during the same period.

Glade said that, "In addition to the large unemployment benefits paid out three other items should be noted (1) the Department of Employment's current report to the Governor shows that in July nearly 44,300 claimants each week had exhausted their regular 26-weeks of unemployment benefits and were collecting on an additional 13 weeks of benefits; (2) August is the fifth consecutive month that California has seen 6 per cent unemployment which has triggered into operation the extended benefits program; (3) forty per cent of all claimants in July were women.

"The danger of the unemployment fund was mainly attributable to the ultra-liberal unemployment insurance system in California and the diversion of the program from its original purpose of protecting the family breadwinner who lost his job because of no fault of his own," Glade stated.

"Further," said Glade, "California now leads the nation in total expenditures in the social welfare field. California has achieved another first—and in a manner which may be detrimental to our economic good health," he concluded.

Acalanes Students Study Bay Area Urban Problems

Students in the Acalanes Union High School District have a chance to examine phases of totalitarianism and probe some of the problems inherent in Bay Area urban growth in two Acalanes District Humanities seminars.

"Differences in the style of diplomacy between totalitarian and a free society" was explored Sept. 24, by Dr. Paul Seabury, of the University of California.

Dr. Seabury, a research political scientist, has been the recipient of several national research fellowships, and is the author of numerous articles on American foreign policy and international relations.

PROBLEMS OF urban growth in the Bay Area" will be discussed at a second seminar Oct. 8, by Dr. Donald Foley, professor of city planning and architecture, University of California.

Dr. Foley is a specialist in urban problems and social research relating to city planning and architecture.

Both seminars are part of a year-long series of evening sessions open to students of the Acalanes Union High School District for learning enrichment opportunities.

The seminars are held at Miramonte High, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Guest speaker presentations are followed by small group discussion sessions.

Diablo Musical To Open Series

To open the Diablo symphony's season a series of minature concerts will be held each month at the Concord City Library.

Members of the symphony will offer solos and ensembles during the entire season on the first Monday evening of each month. October 7 will be the first program, 7:45 to 8:45.

A wind ensemble featuring Madrigal to the Moon by Felix Borowski will include Aloha Hodgson, flute; Clara Lou Snook, oboe; Bill B. Smith, clarinet; Thomas Hodgson, french horn; and Jay Sherman, bassoon.

Frank Jilka will play a tuba solo by Judas Maccabaus and June Wilde will offer three waltzes on the piano.

DAD-DAUGHTER TEAM for the handicapped. Vance W. Perry, president of the board of directors, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, soothes tired feet of daughter, Polly. Perry helped supervise Polly and a group of energetic teenagers who rang doorbells in parts of Alamo and raised over $200. "Operation Growth" is the expansion drive for the Center. The residential phase of the drive is currently underway and should be concluded the end of the week.

Public Invited To John Muir Hosp. Ceremony

The public is invited to join with hospital workers, city and county officials and special guests to commemorate success in one of the biggest community projects ever undertaken in Contra Costa County on a volunteer basis—the John Muir Memorial Hospital.

SEVEN STORIES of structural steel framework have risen into the skyline at the ten-acre site on Ygnacio Valley Road, and the centrally located non-profit community hospital already is a widely recognized landmark.

"People who attend the cornerstone laying will be able to see construction progress at close hand," says Alfred B. Layton of Diablo, chairman of the hospital board of trustees.

A simple and brief ceremony is planned for cornerstone installation in the vicinity of the future hospital entrance lobby, with Layton acting as master of ceremonies.

Within the hollow cornerstone will be preserved hospital history and significant mementos, including names of hospital association members to that date.

PARKING FACILITIES off the highway will be ample.

Cornerstone ceremony arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Frank E. Young of Walnut Creek, assisted by Mrs. Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Robert W. Hoyer of Clayton, Mrs. John A. Hutch of Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Frank T. Malley of Lafayette.

Parental Liability Mounts

Parents and guardians are now $14,000 more responsible for drivers under 21 years old for whom they have assumed liability.

The law was amended by the 1963 Legislature to raise the maximum liability imputed to parents or guardians from $11,000 to $25,000, according to Tom Bright, Director of Motor Vehicles.

This means parents or guardians who sign a driver's license application for a minor become liable for up to $25,000 for any one accident in which the minor is judged responsible. The sum would be applied to cover damages suffered in accidents involving death, injury and property damage.

THE PREVIOUS limits—$5000 for death or injury to one person, $10,000 for death or injury to two or more persons, and $1000 for property damage—were established in California vehicle law in 1929.

The new limits are $10,000-$20,000-$5000, which is a maximum of $25,000 for any one accident.

Bright said the increase aligns liability imputed to parents and guardians with the minimum limits covered as standard practice by insurance companies. It also matches the 10-20-5 liability limits required since 1957 by the California Financial Responsibility Law, which applies to owners and drivers involved in accidents reportable under that law.

WEEKEND WEATHER

The second week of official Fall weather will bring partly cloudy skies today, the United States Weather Bureau forecasts. However, it will be continued warm with the mercury reaching the low 90s, according to the weatherman.

What about the weekend? Saturday and Sunday, he said without fear or trepidation, are: "Unpredictable!"

County Library Reports Thefts By Booknapper

A fast moving operator with a yen for reading material has made off with about $900 worth of books from the Contra Costa County Library according to a report made recently to the Sheriff's office.

Eleanor Watkins, adult service librarian for the county system, reported that the thief obtained a library card through the Pinole branch library, using the name, Robert Moss. He gave his address as 162 Virginia Lane, Concord.

In the three days following issuance of the card, the booknapper picked up books at branch libraries in Concord, Lafayette, Martinez, El Cerrito, Pleasant Hill, Antioch and Pinole.

The books taken were "school type" books, dealing with technical subjects and with literature. All of them were clearly marked as being property of the county library system.

The librarian who issued the card recalled that "Moss" was in his early 30's, a little under six feet tall, weighed about 185 pounds had dark hair and honest face and wore khaki work clothes.

Women's League Meetings Set For Next Week

Two meetings for new and prospective members of the Concord-Diablo Valley League of Women Voters are scheduled for Tuesday and Thursdays. The first will be held at the home of Mrs. Ludwig Reis, 3 Karen Court, Walnut Creek, at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Bernard Van Horne will open her home at 3396 Angelo, Lafayette, at 8 p.m. on Thursday.

These informal social hours are to acquaint new members with the purpose, aims, principles and accomplishments of the League, according to Mrs. Reis, membership chairman.

Any woman of voting age in central Contra Costa County is welcome to attend either of these meetings, she said, and may call her at 934-3541.

Free X-Rays Next Friday At Walnut Creek

The Health Department mobile X-ray unit will be located at 1400 Broadway in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, from 2-5 p.m. and from 6-7:30 p.m., next Friday. Free X-rays are available to all people 15 years and over.

Foodhandlers who wish to complete the requirements for their individual health permits may obtain a chest X-ray and a permit application at the unit.

The County Health Department provides free chest X-rays as a part of its Tuberculosis Control Program.

County Not To Tax Cars For Rapid Transit

Contra Costa County will not join two other counties in increasing the auto tax to provide more money for rapid transit construction.

The Collier Bill allows a one-half cent tax on the value of cars that can be applied to the cost of rapid transit.

Tuesday the county's Board of Supervisors decided that the October 1 deadline for such action was too imminent—"and there were too many other pressing county problems."

The proposal had called for Contra Costa to join with Alameda and San Francisco counties to provide the increased revenue.

The board agreed to wait until the question comes up again next year.

Church Council Is Prepared To Forward Funds

Dr. Philip J. Daunton, executive director of the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches, has announced that the council stands ready to forward moneys received at its office, 2900 Bonifacio Street, Concord, to the 16th Street Baptist Church, Birmingham, Alabama.

According to Dr. Daunton, any money collected is to be used at the discretion of the minister of the bombed church—to aid the grieved families, to rebuild the church or to further the civil rights movement.

In connection with the collection of funds, the council members call the attention of the community to the following statement on the Birmingham bombing, issued by the National Council of Churches:

Christian people throughout this land feel a terrible sense of sorrow and shock at the bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham Sunday, September 15, which brought about the tragic death of four children.

Our hearts go out to the families of the four upon whom the loss falls most heavily, and then to the Negroes of America who share their grief and then to all Americans, black and white, whose lives are stained by these racist murders.

This Revolution of 1963 has now claimed four more victims—four innocent children. As Christians we can only pray that their deaths will not be in vain. The passage of a really effective Civil Rights Bill and the dawn of a new day in race relations are the most eloquent memorials which this land can erect to their memory.

It is time for the white Christian people of Birmingham to arise and speak out openly and forcefully against the madness which has swept their city, a madness which was allowed to take root and grow by their silence and which has been encouraged and inflamed by the reckless and irresponsible statements of open defiance made by their governor. Let them acknowledge that the only way to prevent such senseless tragedies is by wholehearted public support of a society where all men, both white and Negro, are truly free."

Sanitary Dist. Extends Time On Assessments

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board of directors at its September meeting, extended the time to pay assessments in Local Improvement District No. 42, located in the Reliez Valley Road, Taylor Boulevard and Withers Avenue area from Sept. 19 to Oct. 25.

Moraga Memo

Fall Falls In Moraga Valley

By YVONNE MAUZEY
376-4083

CHILL IN THE AIR speaks of fall, but the flowers of Moraga bloom on gloriously, not knowing when to call it quits. Monday was the first day of fall. Soon the trees will be dressed in their reds and golds and browns, dancing and dipping to the slightest whim of the breezes, like fair ballerinas.

The cookies in the oven are smelling delectable. I am baking for the Parent Club meeting. Might as well get my part done soon as later. On a cool morning I like nothing better than the smell of something cooking in the oven. The raid on the cookie jar and the glow on the children's faces is my reward, for in homemaking there are no raises or promotions from the boss, and seldom praise from others to show we have hit the mark.

I feel very dispensable with automation as it is. With most things my electric slaves. Though it still takes the touch of my hand to start the slaves moving. So I guess maybe I am indispensable, as the machines can't do it without my help.

MORAGA NEWCOMERS are holding their Fall Luncheon, at the Newell House in Walnut Creek at 12 noon, October 19th. All Welcome! Moraga Newcomers and their guests. The program boosts the Frasers of Berkeley, an interior decorating studio. If interested call Pati Johnson, 376-6543, and make your reservations.

SPEAKING OF PATI, she has just returned from Fresno again. She is pretty well keeping the road hot between here and there. Two weeks ago she moved her daughter Joni down to go to school at Fresno State, then left last Thursday to go down again to move Joni into the Kappa Kappa Gamma house, as she has just made the sorority. Congratulations.

MAY I put in a word as an early reminder, especially for absentees, that the Moraga School District bond authorization election is October 8th. If you are going to be out of town at this time be sure to get your absentee ballot at the Camino Pablo School, so your vote will be counted. We need a ⅔ vote to pass this bond. So let's all do our patriotic share and VOTE! Don't let John do it. YOU go to your polls Tuesday, October 8th, and assure our children of the school space needed.

MEETINGS GALORE this past week. Campolindo High had their first meeting of this year's Parent Club, Monday evening. Walt Gritzer, the new president of the Parents Club reviewed plans for the coming year. Principal Alex Winchester brought the audience up to date on the progress of the school with respect to growth in size, faculty, number of students, etc. The faculty and student government leaders were introduced.

Officers for the Campoilndo Parent Club for 1963-64 are Walter H. Gritzer, president; Thomas Mika, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Hermansen, recording secretary; Mrs. Melvin Kelley, corresponding secretary; Herbert W. Hunt, treasurer; Charles Ivy, parliamentarian; Dr. Fred Tarp, membership chairman; Mrs. Robert Hill, hospitality chairman; Thomas Mika, program chairman; Mrs. George Kozak, bulletin; Mrs. R. C. Prince, publicity; Alex Winchester, school; Mrs. Philip D. Bush, community and student welfare; Everett Harris, ways and means chairman; Herbert Hunt, budget.

MORAGA PARENTS CLUB held its tea Tuesday at the home of Margaret and Commander Harlow . . . Wednesday and last night were parent nights at the Rheem and Moraga schools . . . Parent night will be held at the Camino Pablo School Tuesday and Wednesday. The seventh and eighth grades will be Tuesday and grades one through six will be Wednesday.

COMMUNITY CLUB meeting will be Monday night at the Camino Pablo School at 8 p.m. As you know the club has been concentrating on the postal dispute. At this meeting the club will try to present its study group findings to the community. As you all know the Rheem Calif. Land Co. has been a principal force in this dispute. So to see that the community sees both sides of the picture the club has invited Mortimer Withoft of the Rheem Land Co. to attend the meeting and present the other side of the story.

Your Community Club's side of the story is entitled "Your Post Office and How It Affects Moraga." These areas will be covered:

1. Moraga and historic past.
2. Why the name of the post office is so important to an incorporated community.
3. Changes in identity of Moraga due to the post office.
4. Complete split of Moraga in near future.

You people of Moraga will have to decide what you want your community to be. Tear yourself away from the T.V. set on Monday. "You know the end of the story already, the good guy always wins." This isn't necessarily true in community matters.

Also at this meeting there will be a discussion of the bond election coming up and fact sheets available. Be sure to attend. Remember 8 p.m. at the Camino Pablo School.

The Moraga School District is having a paper drive the last week in October. Sponsored by the Parents Club to buy more books for the library. Be sure to start saving your papers. So we will have a HUGE stack.

TROUBLE ALONG Moraga Road. We have had two cars just recently go off the road into Christian Bros. Provincial House property. The one Sunday was just 15 feet from where a car took a nose dive the previous Sunday.

SHORTS THE SPACE WILL ALLOW: Bobby and Jim Stevenson attending the outdoor barbecue at Wildwood Acres last Wednesday for the Realtors . . . The Swallows had a good turn out for the dessert bridge last week. And oh what yummy yummy dessert . . . Jeanette Costa living it up in bed for a day or two. Says she sprained her ankle. Pretty chintzy way to get all this service, rest and catch up on your reading too. But we WILL wish her well and hope to see her bouncing around again soon . . . Joan and Ron Ertola off to Tahoe for a few days trip. Leaving Granny and Grandpa with the kids. That's the way to take a vacation. . . .

5½ Million School Loan Vote Is Due

Moragans will go to the polls October 8 and vote whether or not to authorize the Moraga School District to borrow up to five-and-one-half million dollars from the State.

The following is an apportionment authorization election fact sheet prepared by Superintendent William Knight:

What is the purpose of this election?

Provide authorization so that the Moraga School District may borrow funds from the State to buy sites and build schools. This is not a bond election.

Why is this authorization necessary?

Moraga is growing at a rapid rate. From 1961 until 1963, the district grew 79.7 percent. Specifically, there were 379 children in attendance during the school year ending June, 1961, 496 in June, 1962, and 681 in June, 1964. By June 1968, our enrollment is expected to reach 3800 children, according to a County Planning Staff report and letters from contractors announcing their intentions to develop 2700 housing units within the next five year period.

How much are we to authorize the school district to borrow?

Up to five-and-one-half million dollars.

Why such an enormous figure?

In addition to the Camino Pablo and Rheem Schools, we will need two elementary schools and one intermediate school to house 3800 chaildren. Each of the elementary schools will be designed for 700 children and the intermediate school will house 100 children.

How will the money be used?

1. Complete Rheem School to bring its capacity to 700 children from its present capacity at a cost of $376,290.

2. Build a complete elementary school, on the Diablo Estates site, housing 700 children at a cost of $947,000.

3. Build a complete elemenary school housing 700 pupils at a cost of $1,073,610.

4. Build an intermediate school so that it will house 1000 7th and 8th grade youngsters at a cost of $1,381,358.

5. As soon as site studies are completed, the district will buy sites for two additional schools. Land values are rising and it's to our advantage to buy at the lowest possible price. That's right now. These sites will cost approximately $665,000.

6. Build central office facilities including maintenance shops and central library facilities at a cost of $236,296.

7. When the projects cited above are completed and if there are any funds remaining and the district continues to grow, three (3) additional sites will be located and purchased at a cost of $460,000.

Let's wait.

The best education for our children can be provided when we plan ahead so as to eliminate double sessions and crowded classrooms. Also, the district can build a better system if sites and buildings are purchased in an orderly, planned manner rather than piecemeal.

How are schools financed?

1. Schools may be financed entirely by the district subject to standards developed by the State of California. This is practical for well-developed districts with slow growth and requiring only a small increase to school facilities.

2. Districts with a rapid growth cannot use the above method without extremely high taxes and inadequate schools. These districts build with State Aid Funds and Bond Issues.

How are State Aid Funds made available?

The district makes an application to the State based on the proof of actual need within the district. A survey is made to determine the number of residence units (including those under construction) and probable number of children to attend. From this, a State formula fixes the size of the school facility to be authorized. The district has the plans prepared by an architect and approved by the State. Then, when the district has bonds outstanding equal to five percent of the assessed value of the district, the State loans the necessary funds to build the school improvement.

Can the district spend five-and-one-half million immediately

No.

How is the district restricted in expending the State Aid Funds?

The district may expend funds only as it qulaifies on the basis of current enrollment, local bond qualification, predicted enrollment based on living units actually under construction within the district, and existing buildings.

What has been the past use of bonds and State aid?

Donald L. Rheem School (1958) and Camino Pablo (1961) were both constructed with State Aid Funds. The total cost of these schools to date and the Diablo Estates school site is $1,211,217. The district qualified for the $1,211,217 in State Aid by issuing $412,000 in local bonds.

If the authorization is not passed, what will be the effect?

The resulting delays would be reflected in increased costs making it difficult and expensive to catch up with future needs.

How do we repay the State?

The district is billed annually for a payment which is related to local bonds outstanding and the assessed valuation of the district rather than the size of the unpaid State debt. There are two limits to the payment. One, any balance remaining after 30 years is cancelled. Two, the tax rate required for the payment is limited to the difference between 40 cents per hundred rate and the rate required to meet the bond payment. When the bond payments require a rate of more than 40 cents, no payment is made to the State.

If we maintain our local bond requirement tax rate at 40 cents per hundred of assessed valuation, there will be no repayment for State school building aid.

TEACHING EXPERT—James Nelson (center) Campolindo High dean of boys and a "pioneer" in the team teaching technique as former instructor at Acalanes High School, discusses future team teaching projects at Campolindo High with principal Alex Winchester, (left), and Campolindo social studies department chairman George Hunrick. Nelson will speak on team teaching at a Contra Costa educator's "Current Issues Conference" October 15 in Pittsburg. The Acalanes District uses team teaching techniques in American Government and American History classess. Campolindo will initiate this type of instruction next year. Dave Ogden Photo

Campolindo Hi Parents Meet

The Campolindo Parents Club held its first meeting of the year Monday evening. Following the election of Herbert Hunt as treasurer, the new officers and committee chairmen were installed, headed by Walter Gritzer, president.

Dr. Harold Winters, guest speaker, gave a talk on the humanities seminar being offered to students of the Acalanes High School District.

Faculty members were introduced by Alex Winchester, principal. Craig Blencowe, student body president, presented student government leaders to the group.

Campolindo Dean To Address Meet

Campolindo High School's dean of boys James Nelson will participate in an October 15 "Current Issues Conference" for Contra Costa educators to be held at Pittsburg High School.

The program, which runs from 4 to 8:30 p.m., is sponsored by the Contra Costa County Coordinating Council, a division of the California Teachers Association Bay section.

NELSON, a "pioneer" team teacher at Acalanes High School before assuming the deanship at Campolindo, will head a discussion of team teaching techniques, one of seven topics designated for exploration on the Current Issues conference.

Other local educator discussion groups will consider problems in de facto segregation, drop-outs, legislation and the educationally and emotionally handicapped child, education television, extremists and the curriculum, professional negotiations and sanctions and teacher association, administration and board relations.

Contemporary Art On Exhibit At St. Mary's

The Keith Gallery at St. Mary's College is showing, until November 1, an exhibit of paintings chosen by Paul Mills of the Oakland Art Museum as representative of contemporary American figurative painters.

The show includes such well known artists as Elmer Bischoff, nationally known painter who is now teaching at the Berkeley campus of the University of California; Richard Diebenkorn, equally successful artist in resident at Stanford University; the late David Park, considered by some critics to be the founder of the "new figurative movement" in painting. The works of Walter Snelgrove, Joseph Brook, Fred Martin, Nathan Olivera and William Brown are also being shown.

Visitors are welcome on Saturdays and Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. and on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2 to 4 p.m.

Cornell Drive Has Local Worker

Mrs. R. C. Williams, 400 Miner Road, Orinda, was among volunteer workers participating in the annual Cornell Fund Programs, for the 1962-63 academic year.

The group of 4000 volunteers working throughout the country presented Cornell University with a total of $1,335,092 in unrestricted gifts. The goal for 1963 is $1,500,000.

Two Doctors To Present Papers

Dr. A. E. Bennett, M.D., of Lafayette and L. G. McKeever, M.D., of Orinda will present papers at the joint meeting of the American Psychiatric Association and the West Coast Psychoanalytic Societies.

Soroptimist To See Cleo's Swim On Nile

A real fun day has been planned for October 6 by the Lafayette-Orinda Soroptimist Club in the form of a brunch at the Buckeye Ranch pool at the end of Springhill Road in Lafayttte.

The Aquaticas and the Sardines of the Soltau Swim School of Walnut Creek will entertain. Featured will be Contra Costas' own "Cleopatra"—Marcie Morton—in her "Swim of the Nile."

Brunch will be served from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday, October 6. Swimming afterwards for the guests.

This is a benefit for the service fund of the Soroptimist Club. Tickets at $3. Reservations are available by calling Mrs. Dana (Louella) Hamlin, 837-9488, or Mrs. Del (Molly) Randall, 934-4467, co-chairmen of the affair.

Dr. Kotok of the United Nations organization will be guest speaker at the October 15 meeting.

Some of our stockholders work at night

Communist workers must find it very hard to understand that an American can be an employee and also an owner of the business.

For instance: All Standard Oilers who are 35 or older, and have 5 years of service, may invest a portion of their pay in Standard shares if they wish, through monthly deposits in our Employee Stock Plan.

The Company adds a contribution, which has averaged more than $1.50 for every $1.00 deposited by employees. When a Standard Oiler retires, dividends from his accumulated stock add to his other retirement benefits.

The Employee Stock Plan is now the largest single holder of Standard Oil stock.

Yes, the husky fellows on that night drilling crew are Standard Oil stockholders. They own a piece of the Company, and share in its profits.

THE BROTHERS FOUR will appear with Dave Brubeck, The Four Freshmen, Carol Brent, Georgie and Teddy and Vince Guaraldi at Grodins Music Festival Sunday. The Festival will be divided into four categories: Jazz, Folk, Popular and Rock 'n' Roll. It is being held at the Oakland Auditorium Sunday starting at 1:30 p.m. Seven playmates from Playboy Magazine will be on hand to distribute thousands of dollars of men's wear as door prizes. Tickets for Grodins Music Festival are available at all Grodins stores. Admission is $4 general public; $2 students.

Polio Shots No School Problem In This Area

Apparently the central Contra Costa County area has a clean slate as far as polio immunization requirements for school attendance are concerned.

A check this week with the office of the county superintendent of schools, the county health department and the Acalanes Union High School District shows no reports of students being kept out of school through lack of compliance with California's polio law.

A summary of the law, furnished by the county health department, follows:

Every student registering for school must comply with the California State Polio Law or he or she may not attend school.

A. California Students:

1. Those students who were conditionally admitted to any California school at the start of the 1962 Fall term with partial but incomplete polio protection were to have completed their protection within one year. If this has not been done, they are now legally required to have another dose of vaccine even before admission for this fall term (1963). They then must complete the polio protection series within 60 days of the start of this fall term.

2. Students who registered in California schools for the first time, later than Fall opening date, 1962, have exactly one year from their registration date to complete their Polio series of 3 immunizations.

B. New Students from Out of State and Kindergarten Registrants:

1. Must have proof of at least 1 polio immunization within 10 days of their admission date or they will be excluded from school. All 3 polio immunizations must then be completed within one year of their admission date.

1. Verification of compliance should be by physician's or clinic's certification.

2. Parents may comply with the Polio Law by a written statement indicating their child's immunization status with Types of Sabin or Salk, i.e., I, II, or III, with dates administered. It is expected that persons who receive two doses of Trivalent Sabin Oral Vaccine will be registered as fully protected.

D.A. Blocks Redistricting

Contra Costa County's chance for quick redistricting received a set-back this week when County District Attorney John A. Nejedly would not agree in advance to a ruling ordering the redistricting of the county's supervisorial districts.

The decision was made public when Nejedly directed his deputy, George McClure, to reply to Stanislaus County Superior Judge David F. Bush that the county does not want to lose its right of appeal by agreeing to terms before a ruling is handed down.

The move was in answer to Judge Bush's suggestion of a stipulated judgment in line with the decision in a similar case in Monterey county.

IN THAT CASE the State Supreme Court has already ruled that the Monterey County Board of Supervisors must establish new boundary lines for their areas—in line with the population growth.

Judge Bush had also asked that the district attorney confer with Lafayette attorney Harold Mutnick who has brought a taxpayers' suit to force the county to realign its supervisorial districts.

McClure stated that he and Mutnick have not met and that Mutnick has written the judge, asking him to order the redistricting at once.

In his letter, Mutnick pointe out that he has been unsuccessful in arranging a meeting with McClure. "I have, however, conferred with Mr. McClure by telephone," he continued.

"MR. McCLURE and I have agreed that his office is to have five (5) days from the date o. this letter (September 23) in o der to consider stipulating to the entry of the proposed judgment; defendants' counsel are to communicate their stipulation by endorsement upon a copy of the proposed judgment and transmittal of same to Your Honor.

"Upon the elapse of said time limit, it is respectfully suggested that the court proceed accordingly."

Soon To Be 82, But She Still Holds Classes

Dr. Edith Bryan, well known Berkeley psychologist, continues to conduct her weekly sessions in the Mt. Diablo district to help local housewives become better parents and homemakers.

Although her 82nd birthday will be celebrated in October, the advice and counsel she offers has continued to help her students throughout the years.

Her career dates back to 1904 with a wealth of experience in education, nursing and psychology.

Dr. Bryan is now conducting three daytime classes. On Tuesdays from 1 to 3 p.m., her sessions in adolescent psychology meet at the Ygnacio Valley Presbyterian Church, at 200 Minert Road; on Wednesday mornings, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center, sex knowledge and hygiene is the topic; and on Wednesday afternoon, the class on child guidance meets from 1 to 3 in the library at Concord Elementary School.

SMOG DAMAGE

Tears, plant damage, limited visibility, job dissatisfaction, property damage, poor health—all of these have resulted from smog, which, say some doctors, "contrary to popular opinion, is not merely the combination of smoke and fog."

Bond's Opens New Store In Contra Costa

The new Bond apparel showplace which has opened in Contra Costa Center is Bond's 22nd store in California.

Coast to coast, it is Bond's 132nd store and will resume Bond's continued expansion program throughout the nation.

Bond's opened four new stores in the spring and has at least four more scheduled for this fall.

In the apparel field, the Bond Clothes label is probably the best known in the nation.

FROM COAST to coast and border to border, Bond Clothes are known and respected for quality, style and value.

Throughout the nation, as in California, Bond stores serve the principal cities, with downtown stores augmented by additional Bond apparel centers in major suburban shopping areas.

In both downtown and suburban areas, the styling and design of Bond stores makes them outstanding in their business communities.

THE NEW BOND store in the Contra Costa Center is a shining example of the newest styling of Bond stores, fresh and modern in their approach to the merchandising of the smartest of the new fashions in apparel for men, women and boys.

Special Piano Class Offered

A new rapid piano course for adults will be offered by Mt. Diablo Evening High School, 2540 Grant Street, Concord, on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m., it was announced yesterday by L. M. Haagensen, principal.

This is the same quick piano instruction being given city adult schools throughout California, designed to teach ballads, popular music, waltzes and other light fare.

The class will meet once a week. More advanced classes meet on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Name Winning Artists In Art Association's Show

Names of area students winning semi-finalist ratings in the 1963-64 Merit Scholarship competition were announced yesterday by the Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Students cited for their achievement are:

DANVILLE: Joanne M. Artero, Eugene P. Patterson, Susan S. Reynolds and Marian Vandewater from San Ramon Valley High School.

LAFAYETTE: Barbara K. Dodge, Wynne S. Furth, Owen W. Griffith, Bill G. Laird, Frances Luthy, James P. Schrupp and Laura M. Vacco, from Acalanes High School.

ORINDA: Thomas W. Cline, Patricia E. Coffey, Leslie Ann Deming, Sara J. Duebner, Nancy D. Hechtman, John G. Heckathorn, Roy E. Hoyer, Linda Liu, Lawrence Livinston, Laurence P. Madin, Richard L. Moe and Peter S. Smyth, Miramonte High School.

PLEASANT HILL: Brent G. Coffin, Janet E. Dottery, Martin C. Harper, Michael K. Ipson, Dale R. McKay, James H. Natland and James A. Woodhead, Pleasant Hill High School.

WALNUT CREEK: Kenneth L. Crooks, Kathleen T. Doran, Patricia A. Genre, Jeffrey E. Pimper, and James M. Sanborn, Las Lomas High School.

THEY ARE among 13,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semi-finalist status. The group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in United States territories. Each semi-finalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice.

Semi-finalists must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination, be endorsed by their schools, and fulfill certain routine requirements to become finalists. All Merit Scholars are selected from the finalist group.

Club Meet For Single Persons To Be Held

With 30 applications approved and 50 more waiting to be processed the Contra Costa 5th Wheelers—a club for single persons—will hold their formal inauguration Tuesday.

A constitution committee under Robert Creedy of Walnut Creek is hammering out a constitution and by-laws for formal presentation to the club on its opening night. Election of officers will also be held. The new club is a non-profit co-operative affiliate for single people of East and Central Contra Costa County.

The influx of applicants forced the club's postponement of a wine tasting tour scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 22 to Sunday, Oct. 20.

Further information may be obtained by calling 935-7818 or 689-0874 after 6 p.m.

New Channel For Carquinez Strait

New plans for the dredging of the Carquinez Strait channel should be approved in Washington in 10 days, the Board of Supervisors learned Tuesday.

The revised plan calls for a 45-foot wide channel instead of the original 35 feet, and the depth to be increased from 30 to 35 feet.

The Army wil be responsible for the dredging operations.

Learn More About Your Child At DVC Course

Miss Marjorie R. Armstrong, family life instructor at Diablo Valley College, reports that youngsters in the two-year-to-kindergarten age bracket are now being accepted at the college's parent-child laboratory.

The laboratory program, in operation since 1950, is designed for the parents of pre-school children and others interested in the problems of parental relationships.

PARENTS LEARN about child behavior and development and can compare the development of their children with others. A requirement is that parents attend a weekly Thursday night class which usually features the appearance of outside speakers who are experts in such fields as pediatrics, nutrition, and psychiatry.

The child laboratory itself is conducted during day hours as part of DVC's part-time program. There are classes for youngsters in three age groups, each class accomodating from 16 to 20 children.

The laboratory, or nursery school, is attended by mothers one day a week. Regular DVC day students who are studying for careers in social work, teaching, and nursing, also attend as observers.

More Wages Allowed By Program

About 66,000 workers in Contra Costa County's non-farming businesses earned taxable wages under the old-age, survivors and disability insurance program, according to the latest edition of County Business Patterns.

Morgan J. Shea, Social Security district manager, said a total of 5745 reporting units of employers of non-farm employees covered under the program paid out some $93 million in taxable wages in the county during the first quarter of 1962. The report shows 89 of the employing units reported 100 or more workers each at that time.

THE LARGEST proportion of employment, 25,974 workers, was in manufacturing with 13,678 employed in retail trade.

The publication shows how many people work, where, and in what industries, and how much they are paid in taxable earnings. In addition to its use in administering the social security program, the publication is valuable to businessmen in analyzing market potentials and establishing advertising and sales programs, in analyzing the industrial structure of regional areas, and in making base economic studies of small areas.

COPIES OF County Business Patterns may be examined at district offices of the Social Security Administration, and at many public libraries.

Watch For New Detour On Hiway 24

Traffic this side of Caldecott Tunnel on Highway 24 may be slowed this morning as the State Highway Department establishes a detour on the north lane.

The detour, about a quarter of a mile long, will be set up a little over half a mile east of the tunnel to permit additional highway work at that point.

According to a department spokesman, it is hoped that by some time in December all traffic will be taken off the present black top and routed over the new concrete.

Edwin Clark Is Honored By Delts

Before an audience which will include two justices of the United States Supreme Court, Edwin H. Clark will receive a citation for distinguished service from Delta Tau Delta fraternity today at 4 p.m.

Clark is a fire commissioner of the Orinda Fire District. He and his family reside at 37 Charles Hill Circle, Orinda. Clark is a San Francisco business executive.

HE GRADUATED from the University of California, Berkeley, with the class of 1936.

The award will be presented at the fraternity's Beta Omega Chapter House, 2425 Hillside Avenue, Berkeley. Clark is currently house corporation president.

Associate Justice Tom C. Clark and William J. Brennan will be present. The award will be conferred by Justice Clark.

BOTH ARE members of the fraternity and Clark is a vice president of the national body. The jurists will come to the chapter house directly from dedication ceremonies at the Earl Warren Legal Center on the campus.

Clark will be only the sixth member to receive the distinguished service award in the 65 year history of Beta Omega chapter.

THE ARRANGEMENTS committee for the presentation is headed by Arleigh T. Williams, '35, dean of students, University of California.

It includes: W. W. Gay, '13, Col. Ted Haley, '16, A. T. Horn, '35, all of Orinda; Fred Boole, '19, Auburn, George Parrish, '18, Piedmont, Arthur H. Connolly, '32, Hillsborough, and George Mallock, '52, Berkeley.

TIRE TRIPS

Underinflated tires cause hard steering, according to the National Automobile Club.

MOSAICS AND BANKS—Mrs. Fenn Wilson is shown with Sunday school girls between the ages of 9 and 13. The children's "Crafty Corners" booth will have their decorated piggy banks and mosaic bowls for sale.

Country Fair Will Get Goin' Early At Church

With over ten game booths, horseback rides, a country store, two performances of "Show Time," a wandering artist and food enough to keep going for the whole seven hours, St. Stephen's Country Fair will get under way promptly at 10 a.m. tomorrow. It will be on the grounds of the Orinda Episcopal Church, at Via Las Cruces and St. Stephen's Way, dwindling to a stop at 5 p.m.

IT IS DESIGNED to appeal to the whole family. The "Country Store" will offer white elephants which tend toward the antique; jams, jellies and homemade pickles, lovely holiday decorations with the whimsical touch, aprons and candles and gift-wrapped Christmas sweetmeats.

There will be "new to you" clothing, new books, potted plants, old books and old records, a "treasure chest" of glamor-garb for little girls, even Christmas cards and magazine subscriptions.

Paintings by local artists will go by auction, along with mosaics and religious wood carvings.

Mary Bell will do on-the-spot pastel portraits. "Crafty Corners" will sell original creations of the younger craft artists. A make-up booth will transform the kiddies into clowns and princesses and storybook characters.

GAME BOOTHS have been devised. Popcorn, cotton candy, barbecued hotdogs and cold drinks will be on hand.

"Show time" comprises two dance acts: a folk-singer, a clown and a magician. All decorations will be in red and white, synchronized by artist Elaine Lawson and architect Ted Milhous.

MRS. CHARLES HOGLE and her co-chairman, Mrs. Harold Gunn, have been responsible for the over-all arrangements.

Food is the special concern of Mrs. David Wenrich; new books, Mrs. Phil Jelley; old books and records, Mrs. Albert Horn; plants, Mrs. William Wilkinson; crafts, Mrs. Fenn Wilson; sewing, Mrs. Jack Rands; booths, Mrs. Richard Teeter; technical advisor, Mrs. Donald Bentley, and cashier, Mrs. Charles Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clemons will serve as grounds organizers; Mrs. Albert Meyer, coordinator; Mrs. Joseph McKinley, clean-up; Mrs. Lyndon Vivrette, correspondence, and Mrs. Kenneth Renwick, publicity.

BEAN TARGET — Bean bag toss gets finishing touches by (left) St. Stephen's Episcopal Day School's Mrs. August Klein and Mrs. Wilbur Lawson, one of the church women.

ARTS GALLERY—Among the well-known artists who will serve on the jury of selection for Orinda's first fine arts gallery are (from left) Pat Mervin and Jean Dichou, both of Orinda, and Don Osterloh of Walnut Creek. The gallery will be open from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m. at Frank Benicasa's DIVERSIFIED ARTS of Orinda. Paintings will be available for rent or sale. Also on the jury will be Katy Madsen of Walnut Creek.

Friends Of Library To Have 2 October Events

Two interesting events are on the calendar for October in connection with the Orinda Library. Both are being planned by the Friends of the Orinda Library.

The coffee hour and speaker was so successful and enjoyed by so many Orinda residents that it will be repeated again this year. The first will be at 10 a.m. October 8. The speaker will be Alan Milne, a visiting scholar in the philosophy department at University of California.

MILNE IS on a sabbatical leave from Queen's University, Belfast, Ireland. He is a graduate of the University of London and received his Ph.D. degree from London School of Economics in 1952.

Mrs. Marshall A. Shapiro is program chairman and she is being assisted by Mrs. Herbert Waterman.

All interested Orindans are cordially invited to hear this interesting speaker, they said.

The title of his speech will be "Freedom of Speech."

THE MUCH talked of "Book Fair in the Village" is set for October 10 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at Lucky's parking lot in the village.

Hundreds of used books will be offered for sale at the outdoor book stalls, all for a fraction of their original cost.

Convenient bins have been set up at Ogden's, Sprouse-Reitz, Wells-Fargo Bank and Lucky's in the village. Anyone having books they no longer want are urged to donate them for this sale.

Mrs. Clay H. Sorrick is in charge. Her assistants are Mmes. Paul H. Demeter, George H. Hauerkan, Clarence L. Dunn and William E. Howe.

Hiring Teachers Of Minority Race Is Topic

Wilson C. Riles, executive secretary of the state commission on equal employment opportunity for teachers, will be the featured speaker at the meeting of the Orinda Council for Civic Unity, October 4.

His topic will be: "Employment of Minority Race Teachers in California.

Since 1958, Riles has been consultant in certificated employment practices in the state department of education.

He received his early schooling in New Orleans and his college education and master's degree from Arizona State. He then had 12 years of experience in teaching and school administration in Arizona, and later spent several years as executive secretary for the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

The meeting will be at Oak Spring Clubhouse, Underhill and Spring, Orinda. Dessert and coffee will be served at 8 p.m. followed by the meeting at 8:45. All who are interested are welcome.

Prentiss Combs Story Appears

Author Prentiss Combs, 309 El Toyonal, Orinda, has a short story in the October issue of Good Housekeeping magazine. "Beyond All Wonder" is the title of the story.

Combs is one of the few writers listed in the 1963 edition of Who's Who in the West. He has had numerous short stories published in national magazines. His works have also appeared on television and in anthologies.

DEATH RATE

The uterine cancer death rate has been cut more than 50 per cent during the last 25 years and could be virtually eliminated if all women had a Papanicolaou test once a year, according to the American Cancer Society.

Guidos Given Farewell Tea

A farewell reception-tea at the home of the R. A. Sodestroms, 12 Richart Court, Orinda, was held Sunday in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Laurence C. Guido.

Rev. Guido resigned his pastorate at the Orinda-Lafayette First Baptist Church, 4300 El Nido Ranch Road, to continue work on his doctorate at Golden Gate Seminary.

Presbyterian Church Has Ground Breaking

About 200 attended the ground breaking service Sunday at the new site in Diablo Estates for Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church. The ground breaking followed the regular 11 a.m. worship service, being held temporarily at Inland Valley School.

The new site, composed of nine acres in Diablo Estates, Moraga, at the end of Idlewood Court, was presented the church clear and unencumbered by the Presbytery of San Francisco.

THE SITE commands a view of the Moraga Valley with the Camino Woods on the south and Lost Valley on the North.

The $27,500 grading and drainage contract was awarded to Gallagher and Burk contractors from Walnut Creek.

There will be 35,000 cubic yards of dirt to be moved and compacted. It is anticipated that the grading will be completed in four weeks.

The building site will be at the top of the hill which will be graded level. A parking area for 200 automobiles will be situated some twelve feet below the building level. Part of the site will be retained for future development.

MEMBERS OF the building committee are Clinton Cooper, chairman; Rex Collins, Raymond Fernwoods, Donald Dunlop, Cal Hermansen, Mrs. Donald Dye, Loren Mowrey, Mrs. Robert Cathcart, Fred Nielsen, and Maynard Wadsworth.

The firm of Rockrise and Watson of San Francisco has been selected as architects.

The preliminary drawings have been approved. The working drawings and specifications should be ready for bidding about the middle of October.

"It is our goal to have a lovely church building on the hill that will compliment the natural beauty of the Moraga Valley. We hope to construct a church building that the people of the Moraga Valley may be proud to call their own," said Cooper.

Schools And Polio Shots

That was some disturbing news the other day out of Richmond where 800 youngsters were kept out of school because they hadn't been properly immunized against polio.

We checked around with the various school districts in the Central County area and found that no such action had to be taken here.

ACCORDING TO one county health official whom we queried, a very liberal interpretation has been made of the state law.

Actually the state law requires that students complete three polio immunizations by the second week of school if they attended school in California last year.

The county health department's liberal interpretation of the law—insofar as the present school year is concerned—is that a youngster must have had his first shot within the first two weeks after classes opened, and then complete the series during the current school year.

THE ONLY exceptions are where parents outlaw the polio series for religious reasons or where a physician believes it wouldn't be desirable for medical purposes.

The county health department admits that it has no way of really checking if students have started their shots, or completed them.

We're not urging an enforcement of the program. WE JUST BELIEVE that a parent who hasn't seen to it that his child has received the shots—within the reason of his own logic—is being very foolish.

Back The United Crusade Drive

United Crusade is not "just another cause . . . just another charity."

Support of neighbor-to-neighbor, human-to-human services through the united community fund is a proven, sound development in American Society. The United way works best.

On Tuesday the United Bay Area Crusade campaign opens in five Bay Area counties, including Contra Costa. The goal is $11,407,000.

THAT'S A LOT of money, but well worth it when you consider the number of individuals and agencies that are helped.

This year alone private health, welfare and planning agencies within Contra Costa County are receiving $396,174 through United Crusade.

More than 45,000 boys and girls belong to United Crusade—financed organizations in our county—ones that are dedicated to normal growth and healthy development of youngsters of every condition, race and creed.

DURING 1963 alone, some 26 different organizations are receiving financial help from the Crusade.

As a result a lot of persons are being made much better citizens because of this assistance.

The Sun backs the United Crusade effort to the hilt.

So when the Crusade drive gets under way next week, give what you can afford.

Your money is going to a very worthy cause.

Your Car---And The Speed Laws

You'd have to wear bifocals if you were to peruse the more than 300 changes to the state's motor vehicle law that went into effect recently.

But there are some significant changes dealing with speed laws—and ones that you should understand.

The basic speed law now requires drivers to use weather conditions and visibility as guides in setting a safe speed—in addition to the already established factors of road surface and width, and traffic conditions.

THE MAXIMUM speed law was amended to provide for raising the limit to 70 miles an hour BUT UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS AND IN SPECIFIED LOCATIONS.

The limit becomes effective only after signs are posted indicating the 70 mph maximum.

Thus, California's maximum speed actually remains at 65 miles an hour.

Other new measures, dealing with speed:

School buses, cars pulling trailers and farm labor buses, all of which are limited to 50 mph or less, must drive in the right-hand lane of multi-lane highways.

TRUCKS WITH three or more axles now have a maximum speed limit of 50 mph.

So you can see—when you're on the highway—use discretion and travel according to the conditions around you.

Will The Voters Turn Out?

By ROBERT KAHN

If the proposed Lafayette incorporation does succeed, I think that all of us living in the surrounding area will be witnessing the birth of a completely deformed city. There is some question as to whether or not it will be able to live.

In the 1960 census California had 23 incorporated cities with a population of less than 1000 people, the smallest being Hornitos with 73 (a decline from 159 in 1940). Five were incorporated between 1950 and 1960 and the other 18 were incorporated prior to 1940. Of this 18, eight of them had a smaller population in 1960 than in 1950 or 1940.

But when you look at these midget cities you see two things. Either the cities are special purpose (Dairyland, Industry, Vernon — Vernon is interesting because it is disappearing — the population dropped from 850 in 1940 to 229 in 1960); or they are community centers such as Amador, Colfax, Dorris, Maricopa, Plymouth, Point Arena and others.

In these "midget cities" that are not special purpose cities, you will find that the people who live in them also own property and make a living in them. There is a dual interest on the part of these people. There is at least a chance for self-government as we normally conceive it.

But Lafayette is not going to fall into either of these categories. It won't even be the protective homeowner type of community such as Los Altos Hills (pop. 3412). It is purely and simply a move by property owners, 50 per cent in number live outside of the proposed city limits. It is interesting that some 55 per cent of the proponents are in business in Lafayette—and thus concerned with taxes on their businesses. These taxes often run hgiher in dollar amounts than on a typical home.

The proponents still have not come forward with a list of 30 or 40 residents of the proposed city who have some recognizstature in the area and who will be able to provide all the positions proposed—city councilmen, mayor, planing commission, park commission and the like. The two or three people that I know who live within the proposed area have told me that they are not interested in being public officials.

It is entirely likely, if Lafayette does succeed in the proposed incorporation, that the public vote will look something like 32 to 29. This seems to be an intolerable situation—because these few people will be purely and simply diverting the $300,000 plus subvention funds (primarily sales and gasoline tax money) generated by the 15,000—20,000 who truly comprise Lafayette for the benefit of the limited number of property owners and businesses.

Although I have asked publicly for months for a statement from the proponents as to their policy on future annexations, none has ever been issued. One can only assume that this entire effort is for the purpose of tax savings by a few—and once these savings are obtained they will not be interested in any annexation that would adversely affect their favorable tax position.

It is my hope that this election fails.

Collector's Items From Monterey Jazz Festival

By MARIE MONAHAN

ONCE A YEAR I dig out the brightest nail polish, paint my toenails, put on my thong sandals and sally forth to that swinging affair that is the Monterey Jazz Festival.

My Son, The Collector, came along not only for the music, but to add Jazzania of sorts to his room's bulletin board—which has been expanded to the ceiling, four walls and floor to accommodate an array of playbills, Playboys, sports programs, ticket stubs, travel posters, race-car decals and other foofaraw too innumerable to mention here.

THIS YEAR'S MUSICAL smorgasbord celebrated its 6th anniversary with a washday blue sky overhead . . . and the 76 degree temp held its own long after the sun went down so that warm coats and bulky sweaters merely served to soften the hard seats that confined you to a spot for anywhere from 3 to 6 hours.

THE SECURITY force was the largest ever but there wasn't a single fight to settle and the 9,000 strong was almost too well-behaved for the informality of the festival. Other years, the In & Outers, Back & Forthers sometimes created a nuisance but added, too, to the casual atmosphere that is the image of the Monterey Jazz Festival.

IT IS A tremendous experience. Not only in music but in human behavior. To watch a crowd that size silence themselves to pin-drop peacefulness (as when guitarist Larendo Almeida played Sunday afternoon) is indeed a rare and amazing thing to ponder. Dave Brubeck's dignity and artistry commands that kind of serenity in an audience, too.

The conglomeration of humanity: they were all there . . . From the Colonel's lady to Judy O'Grady, even some that were shady, all enjoying themselves and by a look, a glance, recognizing you were doing the same.

COLLECTOR'S ITEMS: A fenced area around the refreshment booths taking on the look of a cattle pen . . . people lounging with lunch baskets, pillows, bongo drums and/or sprawled out, head on a sleeping bag roll, for a snooze.

The usual black and white motif (of the cafe chair and trumpet) this year bursting into color on stage . . . A zooty-suited extrovert holding court with comic commentary and having himself a captive audience . . . and my son, the collector, buying an Equality pin from another extrovert—Dizzy Gillespie.

IN THE NIGHTCLUB darkness of the Hunt Club, that perennial collegian Gerry Mulligan (age 37) holding a barefooted blonde at bay while eavesdropping on another conversation while composing more for his original score of "Theme for Jobim" while also managing to compare the attributes of the sax and the clarinet with my son, the clarinetist.

MULLIGAN STEW: Gerry recalled the Newport Jazz Festival when 13,000 people sat huddled in the rain—but the saxaphonist and his men played only to a grey curtain of rain that fell between stage and audience. Outside the arena another 10,000 ("buncha NUTS?") stood in saturation, just to listen. This dampening of the spirits probably provoked the riot, a rarity, which occurred the following day.

MULLIGAN'S EARS perked up at someone's mensh of "professional negro." In this business, we're not professional Jew, Irish or Negro. We're just all musicians . . . "never worry about being 'professional anything' . . . just concentrate on being a professional human being . . ." Mulligan's set with the Teagardens and Pee Wee Russell one of the highlights of the weekend.

IN THE MEANTIME, my son continued his collecting: torn ducats, programs, autographs, even blowing two bucks for some colorful posters at an artist's booth.

Author John Steinbeck bidding everybody to his sumptuous 800 Cannery Row digs for a big blow-out; Kim Novak among the partygoers.

THE FESTIVAL ending on a big brassy note with a 5-hour finale which held most of the mob till a past-midnight ending . . . Jon Hendricks' jubilant jamblings coming out with an original "Vote Dizzy" (for President), Carmen McRae, lyrical gal, strutting around in what looked like a shocking-pink potato sack . . . Harry James, now graying, blew his horn to make us feel old, then young, depending on the tune he was playing . . .

WE made the long haul home in the wee hours of the morning; my son happy he's "finished" with his collecting for some time.

As for me, I'm still collecting myself . . .

Parachute Jumping In W.C.

Ed. Note: The Sun's writer-photographer John Teale's previous association with parachute jumping was quite a grim one. It was an aftermath to the big jump held at Arnhem, Holland, near the close of World War II. Many of you remember the grim story. His near membership in the Caterpillar Club (a club whose members all saved their lives by use of parachute) came while in the British equivalent of the OTC during the war. While on a training mission he all but bumped into a Dornier 217 coming in to bomb our airfield. Nuf sed.

By JOHN TEALE

At last I have witnessed a real live, off celluloid, parachute jump. It was really quite a simple operation, although personally, I would only wish to do it under extreme provocation.

It almost cost me a satellite neck," however, from a solid half hour or more of tense expectant skyward gazing. The plane carrying the parachutist was circling around for a good 20 minutes before the event actually took place.

FINALLY the big moment came when from the tiny speck in the sky that was the plane, an even tinier speck came adrift from it. Trailing black smoke from a special smoke flare attached to his foot, down he plunged. No this was not an Army jump school but downtown Walnut Creek. Time, a little after 7 p.m. Target . . . Walnut Creek Festival Garden.

While awaiting the jump I had the good fortune to speak to Mrs. Cas (short for Charles) Ostrow. Mrs. Ostrow's husband had originally been scheduled to perform the jump schedule.

UNFORTUNATELY for Mr. Ostrow, he had jumped is last jump at the Calgary Stampede this year which, luckily for him, left him reasonably in one piece but due to an injured leg tissue, unable, to stand the physical stress on his legs again from another jump. Hence Mr. Ostrow's standin or replacement, Mike Clancy, a tall, well-muscled young man of 25 from Palo Alto.

Mrs. Ostrow came up with some very interesting information. For instance: Each jump costs $500, i.e., the price the jumper receives is $500. Sounds a lot, doesn't it? Balance out this price with the fact that each jump is absolutely uninsured and although relatively safe these days . . . well, one never knows.

FROM THIS $500, of course, the government must take its share, not only in income tax but in a $25 "temporary license."

This, I suppose, helps defray the costs of holding up all air traffic to and from Oakland and San Francisco Airports in this direction for the duration of the jump. The plane carrying the chutist is in constant touch with flying control by radio.

THE JUMP itself is not any haphazard affair, either. Normally it begins at a height of 7200 feet and it is officially by law designated that the free fall flight of the jumper must end at 2200 feet.

I was forced to comment on this statement, "Who is around up there to say whether or not any infringement was carried out." I was told that an FAA inspector may be in the vicinity of any scheduled jump either in a plane or on the ground.

An experienced parachutist can estimate from the ground whether or not the jump was illegal.

THE JUMP on that night I understand was Mike's debut into professional jumping where an audience of any size was concerned. He is of course, quite experienced otherwise. Due to a somewhat tricky ground wind Mike did land a little off target.

About 25 yards. He did land in soft grassy ground, hower, and on the field designated so he was close enough to the crowd watching to hear the "big hand" he got.

"Good show, Mike," as they say in the Royal Air Force, better luck next time.

Newspapers Declining? Readership Increasing

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Newspapers feel perfectly free to criticize anyone and anything, so they'd better be able to take it.

That doesn't mean they should take it lying down. Much of the current criticism of newspapers is inaccurate and unfair. Generally the critics say that the newspapers are in decline; that newspapers fail to cover the significant news; that they publish too much trivia; that they are out of touch with scientific advance; that they fail even to attract bright young men and women to work in the business.

Newspapers should be glad the critics are busy. When criticism stops, they're dead. But at the same time they have the right and duty to demand from their critics the kind of responsibility and accuracy they require in themselves. Besides that, they might ask for a few statistics.

More Readership Today

Newspapers in decline? Last year some 46 million of the 52 million households in the United States bought 59 million copies of newspapers daily. This is the highest circulation figure in newspaper history. The total is greater than the total of loaves of bread, bottles of milk or packs of cigarettes sold daily in the United States. If demand for the product means anything, newspapers are definitely not in decline.

But, they argue, there are fewer newspapers today than there were a generation ago, and there are more towns with only one newspaper. That is true, in part. There are fewer metropolitan newspapers. Many people who once bought two newspapers now buy only one. According to the Gallagher report, only 55 U.S. cities now have competing dailies, where as the figure was once 552. Gallagher, however, ignores the rise of the suburban newspapers now flourishing in many urban areas.

At least the figures show that more people than ever before are buying that one city paper.

Suburban Readership

The sharp rise in readership of suburban newspapers means that people are taking a keen interest in the local scene. Your local newspaper represents you in probing for political graft, exposing chicanery, explaining legislation, preventing injustice, and, quite generally, performing the duties of a good citizen who has power and a sense of responsibility.

Today the total newspaper is the expression of dedicated teamwork by all those in the profession. A good newspaper today is possible only with a good, intelligent, trained, dedicated staff, in all ranks and levels.

Newspapers have always been—and still are—in the front line fighting for freedom and human dignity. Truly, "Newspapers make a BIG difference in people's lives."

Letters to the Editor

(Ed. Note: A short time back Herman Silverman—The Sun's Publisher—pondered in his column the various means motorists use in flicking off their lights after leaving the Caldecott Tunnel. Here are two more readers who have tidbits of advice about this viewpoint.)

EDITOR:

So now I know that the driver who insists on blinding me with his lights on high is Fred Peglow!

D. C. YOUNG

(Ed. Note: That was Mr. Peglow's advice when we printed his letter recently. But let's be friends anyway.)

EDITOR:

Lights, all the way through the tunnel as there are at each entrance, would be very helpful. Would also eliminate the momentary strain and stress on your eyes upon entering the tunnel on a bright sunshiny day.

I firmly believe this would help many motorists.

INCORPORATION

EDITOR:

I nominate Paul Ogden for city councilman of our proposed City of Lafayette.

An old timer with his backbone' will be a necessity for keeping the city a "no tax" city as its proponents have represented it will be.

I harbor some of the same fears as he does, but I still support the current incorporation movement and feel we have reached the maturity to govern ourselves and solve our own problems.

I feel Ogden, who is a resident and owner of business property in the proposed city (as I am) will be one of the many beneficiaries of the new city.

I sincerely hope he can obtain more facts and become a supporter of this movement.

Glamourama Is Tomorrow

These young matrons are among the many members of Hummingbird unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center to participate in the annual fashion show-dance. This year's event will be in the Florentine Room of Castlewood Country Club.

The affair will start at 9 p.m. at Castlewood Country Club. Dancing to Gus Stearns' orchestra will continue until 1 a.m.

Fashions for the occasions will be by La Femme of Walnut Creek. Rolf Peterson of KGO-TV will narrate the style promenade.

Mrs. Robert Cook is chairman. Mrs. Gil Meacham is fashion cordinator.

Committee members include: Mrs. Alan Setterquist, decorations; Mrs. John Bradley, tickets and reservations; Mrs. Robert Spitzack, invitations; Mrs. Edward Le Sage, special events, and Mrs. Jim Mathews, door prizes.

Swingin' To Fall

"Swing into Fall" is the theme of Reliez Valley Country Club's Womens Golf Association fashion show Wednesday.

Fashions supplied by Gay Shop of Pleasant Hill will feature golf and other sport clothes and "after five" fashions. Millie Benton and Pat Minetti of Gay Shop will coordinate and narrate the showing.

Mrs. Gene Miller of Danville and Mrs. Robert Seaton of Walnut Creek are in charge of the luncheon event which is being sponsored by the women's golf group for the enjoyment of all club members and their guests.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. with the fashion show scheduled for 2 p.m.

Modeling will be done by club members. These include Mmes. Fred Cook, Harold York, Charles Wake, Wyatt, Irwin Marshall, Robert Freeborg, L. C. Strawser and Norman Burkhardt.

'Meet The Authors'

The Ladies Home Society will present its new cookbook at a "Meet The Authors' Party" Tuesday at the Piedmont home of Mrs. Jean Witter.

Some of the members of the society who reside on this side of the tunnel are Mmes. Alex Konkin, Harry Plath and Norman Tuttle, all of Orinda.

Lafayette members include Mmes. Russell Jones, president, Ralph Bender Jr. and Roger Steele.

Mrs. Steele of the Art League of the East Bay, has illustrated the book with chapter headings, and numerous smaller illustrations.

In the end we find him—exasperated and frustrated with cakes that fall, souffles that don't rise, and sauces which boil over—taking a slow boat to China, accompanied with his glamorous friends, the Green Goddess, the Mermaid and the Fairy from Fairy Farm Sauce.

The cookbook may be purchased from any member of the Ladies Home Society and all proceeds go toward the maintenance of the Matilda Brown Home.

Mary Lynn Is Tea Hostess

Mary Lynn auxiliary to the Council for the Retarded hosted a tea at the home of Mrs. Peter Hinton yesterday from 2 to 4 in honor of the Walnut Creek Suburbanettes.

Arrangements were made at the auxiliary meeting held at the home of Mrs. James McClintick, where the new officers for 1963-64 held their first meeting.

Mrs. Harold York, chairman, asked for volunteers to give of their time to man the Ring Toss booth at the Walnut Festival which benefits the council.

Other new officers present were Mmes. Michael Jason, James McClintick, William L. Budde, William Schwarting, George Bentz and Robert Kormel.

MRS. HUGH B. OLIPHANT
(Judy Ann Fosdick)

Oliphant Nuptials In South

A large contingent of localites made the jaunt to San Marino to witness the beautiful church rites uniting in marriage Hugh Barnes Oliphant of Orinda and Judy Ann Fosdick.

Judy Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Fosdick, 950 Sierra Madre Boulevard, San Marino.

Hugh's parents are the Harry Oliphants of 9 La Plaza, Orinda.

The service was performed by Rev. William Driver at St. Edmund's Episcopal Church at 4 p.m., Saturday, earlier this month.

Ferns were on the altar, which was flanked by candelabra. A white arrangement of stock and spider chrysanthemum was on the altar rail.

Among the local wedding guests were the following from Orinda: Mr. and Mrs. Ned de Laveaga and children, Connie, Martha and David; Mmes. and Messrs. Frank Wright, John Almond, Frank DeLos, Clarence Betz and Mmes. Frederick Federighi and Aubrey Sweet. Mrs. Sweet's son from Los Angeles also attended.

Moragans who attended included Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Nick A. Moore and Mrs. Ray Devin.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was an embroidered peau de soie sheath with overskirt ending in chapel train. A pearl crown held her bouffant, shoulder-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of white Eucharist lilies, lily-of-the valley and stephanotis. As something borrowed, she wore her sister Patricia's pearl necklace.

Her sister, Mrs. David C. Hoff, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Hugh's sister, Cathryn Oliphant, Virginia Crane and Mrs. Robert C. Olson.

Dodge E. Moore of Moraga was best man.

Ushers were Anthony Almond, Roger Fosdick, Thomas Herman and Thomas Jones.

A boys' choir, including the bride's brother Michael, sang several selections. Linda McCreight attended the guest book.

After a reception in the garden of the bride's parents' home, the justweds left for a honeymoon in Mexico. They are now at home in San Francisco.

Das Garten Fest

Lederhosen, Tyrolen hats and peasant dresses will be the dress for the third annual Benefit Guild of the East Bay's fund-raising event "Das Garten Fest" or "Der Bavarian Gasser."

This year's beer garden benefit will be held tomorrow in the European-like gardens of Mrs. William Coglizer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coveny on Pershing Drive, Oakland.

Appropriate music for the 400 expected guests will again be furnished by the Sons of the Fleugelhorn. In keeping with the theme, box suppers prepared by the members, will be served in the 'beergarden.

Guests are asked to bring their own beer steins.

Mrs. Gordon Ragan of Orinda is general chairman. She is assisted by Mesdames James Harvey, Barry O'Connor, Harvey Lowthian, Joseph F. Conley Jr., Joseph Tyman, Michael Myers, Donn Bearden and Michael Ragan.

Last year's garden party was held in the Happy Valley home of the Frederick Seaubergers, and the year before the Reginald Biggs estate in Walnut Creek was the setting.

The Benefit Guild supports various activities and agencies in the community as need for support arises.

Guild members volunteer time through the Alameda Contra Costa volunteer bureaus. Last year financial donations included Las Trampas School in Lafayette and Wee Care Center in Walnut Creek.

Proceeds from this month's beer garden party will go into the guild's fund for 1963 community contributions. The guild now numbers 45 young matrons.

King's Daughters To Hold Confab

Mrs. Albert Ellison of Lafayette, branch president of King's Daughters, will preside October 4 at the 67th annual convention.

The group will meet October 4 at the Lakeshore Avenue Baptist Church, Oakland. Delegates from the 19 circles which comrise the branch will begin registration at 9 a.m. with sessions starting at 9:30 a.m.

Diablo DAR Will Meet

The first fall meeting of the Mt. Diablo Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Brass Door, San Ramon.

Hostesses will be Mrs. H. Dean Loomis of Danville, Mrs. Guy Green of Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Frank G. Wells of Danville.

The resolutions adopted by the Continental Congress held in Washington, D.C. will be reviewed by the Regent Mrs. Fred T. Kelleway.

Officers for the year are Mmes. Fred T. Kelleway, William E. Stock, Arthur M. Brewer, Robert V. Read, Clyde E. Brown, Tyko A. Enbom, Herbert L. Wildenradt, Lester R. Wesley, and Guy Green.

Clarinda Telfer Pledges Alpha O

Debutante Clarinda Telfer of Orinda recently pledged Alpha Omicron Pi sorority at Washington State University, Pullman, Wash.

Clarinda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Telfer, 2 Oak Arbor Road, Orinda.

A graduate of Miramonte High School, she will make her curtsy to society at the Winter Ball at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley, December 23.

AFFIANCED PAIR—Mr. and Mrs. Hagop Hagopian recently announced the betrothal of their daughter, Linda Elizabeth, to Daniel Keig York, Jr. The Hagopians revealed the romantic news at a cocktail party-buffet in the garden of their home on Overhill Road, Orinda. The cocktail and dinner napkins were imprinted with "Linda and Dan," as were the match book covers. The wedding cake carried the message: "Happiness to Linda and Dan." Linda's paternal grandmother made Packlana, an Armenian sweet served only on very special occasions. Linda and Dan plan to marry August of next year. The young couple met at San Francisco State College.

Luau Benefits Clinic

Donning the traditional leis are (left to right) Doctors and Mesdames James Elliot and Joseph Elliot and Joseph Lifschutz of Lafayette. The gala luau was recently held by Herrick Memorial Hospital Arch of Sapphires.

Beneficiaries are the Herrick Memorial Hospital Part-Pay Clinic and East Bay Rehabilitation Center, both of which provide services for residents of Contra Costa.

Minkler of Orinda, arranged an interesting and appetizing array of Hawaiian foods. These were prepared by the members and served at hibiscus-decked tables on the torch-lit patio, which owed its colorful tropical atmosphere to the decorating skills of Mrs. Hyzer Jones of Orinda.

Doctors and their wives attending from Orinda included Drs. and Mmes. Karl Ehrlich, Hyzer Jones, Donald Minkler, Louis Rocca and Russel Schulz.

Diablo Women's Garden Club To Hear Mattison

Diablo Women's Garden Club will meet Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the Diablo Country Club. Mrs. Charles Dennis, president, will conduct the meeting.

"Of great interest to the garden club members will be a timely report on Parks in Contra Costa County by Park Director Duane "Doc" Mattison, said Mrs. Dennis.

Mrs. Peter Jarratt, program chairman, will introduce Mrs. Grace Grayson who will give an illustrated lecture entitled "Mosaics Make Modern Magic". She will demonstrate the application of this ancient art to modern home and garden decor.

Born in South Africa, educated in Australia, Mrs. Grayson worked as a freelance writer, columnist and radio broadcaster.

She was titled "Australia's Handiest Housewife" by a national magazine for her home decorating abilities.

Since coming to California six years ago Mrs. Grayson has won reputations as both flower arranger and mosaic artist. In the former field she has achieved national honors and numerous local awards.

Her mosaics have also won ribbons and were shown at the Diablo Art Association show during the Walnut Festival.

She has been invited to exhibit her mosaics in the Concord Library during the month of December, under the auspices of the Concord Women's Garden Club.

Alliance Has Fun Time

The members of Junior Alliance and their guests enjoyed themselves Saturday night at Wildwood Acres Resort in Moraga with a variety of activities.

Their annual fall event was held under clear skies and with an attendance of 175. The proceeds from this event will benefit Lincoln Child Center, a home for emotionally disturbed children.

Seen participating in the various sports were many residents from this side of the tunnel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Caldwell of Lafayette along with their guests, the Joseph Pehanicks of Hayward, were busy playing volley ball and ping pong after the wine tasting which took place in the late afternoon.

Also batting the balls were Mrs. and Mrs. Edmund J. Cody Jr. of Walnut Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Marian Anderson of Orinda . . . The Dean Maddox's of Moraga . . . The Winton E. Mathers of Orinda . . . The William J. Martins Jr. of Orinda . . . The James C. Riewerts of Lafayette . . . The Herbert S. Smiths of Lafayette with their guests the David Cox's of Lafayette.

After swimming, games and wine-tasting a barbecued steak dinner was served with the John W. Martsolfs of Orinda arriving in more formal attire from a cocktail party.

Dancing and cocktails followed dinner with many couples still participating in indoor ping pong.

Social chairman, Mrs. James D. Kaufman of Walnut Creek voiced the opinion that this was one of our more successful events as guests trickled home in the wee hours of the morning.

LT. AND MRS. LYNN S. HILL
Wedding in Baumholder, Germany

Lt. Hill Takes A Bride

Lt. Lynn S. Hill of Orinda recently claimed the former Susan Jane Peterson of Klamath Falls, Oregon, as his bride. The wedding took place at St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Chapel in Baumholder, Germany.

Chaplain Robert H. Hawn performed the 2 p.m. rites. A reception followed at the officers' club.

Lt. Hill is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Earl S. Hill, 9 La Cresta Road, Orinda.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Peterson of Oregon.

Her gown was of white silk organza with full skirt and lace applique on the skirt and bodice. It had short sleeves and scoop neckline. The shoulder-length tulle veil was held by a pearl crown.

Susan carried a corsage of white carnations on a prayer book.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lowry O. Hoyer, cousin of the bride. She resides in Chaumont, France, where her husband is stationed as a captain with the Air Force.

Best man was Lt. Forrest Nelson Pickett. Ushers were Lt. David McDonald and Lt. Ronald Duck.

As her father was unable to attend the wedding, Susan was given in marriage by Major Paul A. Morsch.

Vocalist was Mrs. Ronald H. Smiley.

Lt. Hill graduated from Oregon State University in business administration. His fraternity was Sigma Pi.

The bride is an alumna of Oregon State, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and past president of Phi Chi Theta sorority for women in business.

The honeymoon trip included southern Germany, Switzerland, Italy, the Riviera and France.

Lt. and Mrs. Hill are now at home in Berschweiler, Germany.

Sorority Notes

BETA SIGMA PHI

Members of Tau Nu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their regular meeting yesterday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Douglas R. Hartelt, treasurer, in Concord.

Mrs. Art B. Brittain presented a program on "Self Analysis." Amendments to the bylaws and rules of the chapter were discussed.

Mrs. Dennis Balank discussed plans for the upcoming "model" meeting at which prospective members will be given basic information about the sorority.

Mrs. Vincent Maher of Moraga was given a surprise baby shower following the first business meeting of the year.

The fete was planned by social chairman Mrs. Jack Beck and was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles O'Bryan, Walnut Creek.

Meet New Juniors . . .

New and prospective members of the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club will be introduced to the organization at a membership tea and fashion show.

The juniors extend a welcome to any young woman between the ages of 18 and 35 to their tea at 1 p.m. at the club house on Lincoln Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Glen Short, president, will preside. Speaker and guests of honor will be Mrs. Donald Carson, California State president, Federation of Junior Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Harry Hemstalk, president Mt. Diablo District Junior Women's Clubs.

Fashions will be provided by the Clothes Horse.

Object of this organization is to promote educational, civic and philanthropic work. These projects are carried out harmoniously with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, district federation, and general federation.

For further information, contact Mrs. James Spies, membership chairman or Mrs. David Ritchie.

MR. AND MRS. BRETT W. MERNER
(Peggy Jane Miller)

Merners Gain Daughter

Peggy Jane Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Miller, Santa Rosa, recently became the bride of Brett Wayne Merner of Lafayette. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Carl Merner, 1384 Reliez Valley Road.

At the First Presbyterian Church in Santa Rosa, Rev. Devore Smith officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length ivory satin gown trimmed with lace at the waist and with a bell-shaped skirt and detachable train.

She wore a single strand of matched pearls which were her gift from the groom.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a large single fresh white mum. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of three matching white mums surrounded by croton leaves.

Sandra Thomas was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy Fitch and Shelley E. Merner, the groom's sister. They wore full-length moss green sheathes of chiffon over taffeta and carried bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Roger Dexter of Walnut Creek was best man. Ushers were Jerry Flood, the groom's brother-in-law, and Ted Miller, the bride's brother.

Jenny Flood, the groom's niece, was flower girl.

A reception followed in the church club room.

The groom is a graduate of Acalanes High School and the University of California at Berkeley. He is presently serving in the U.S. Navy.

Their honeymoon trip down the coast was to San Diego, where the groom is stationed. They will make their home at Chula Vista.

Sigma Kappa's Brunch

An al fresco brunch and swim party was the feature of Sigma Kappa Diablo Valley alumnae's first fall meeting recently.

The group met at the Orinda home of Mrs. Laurence Harper on Oakwood Drive, and she was assisted in hostessing by Mrs. Robert Sandberg and Mrs. Wallace Yates of Lafayette.

After relaxing in the sun, swimming, and patio games, a brunch of homemade coffee cake and fruit compote was served. Plans were also made for the Sigma Kappa benefit "Holly-Day" luncheon and program, to be held November 13 at the Lambda chapter house in Berkeley.

Mrs. Daniel Murphy of Orinda was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Robert Maynard, Orinda; Mrs. Richard Hamilton, Danville; Mrs. Thor Johnson, Walnut Creek; Mrs. H. G. Noack, Lafayette; Miss Elda Eggert, Concord; and Mrs. Ivan Brandt, Lafayette.

New officers for the 1963-64 year were introduced.

Mrs. Ivan Brandt, Lafayette, president; Mrs. Robert Maynard, Orinda, vice president; Mrs. James Slusser, Concord, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Eugene Barrington, Concord treasurer. Others are Mrs. L. A. Harper, Orinda; Mrs. Dean Donaldson, Walnut Creek; Mrs. Donald Foster, Danville; Mrs. H. G. Noack, Lafayette; Mrs. Thor Johnson, Walnut Creek; Elda Eggert, Concord; Mrs. Noack and Mrs. Boyd Wickman, Lafayette.

Birch Branch Enjoys Buffet

Members of the Birch Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay and their guests enjoyed a salad buffet recently at the home of Mrs. John W. Purvis, 7 Beaconsfield Court.

Tables were decorated with small potted plants which later served as prizes for the bridge which was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Business Women's Luau

Lafayette Business and Professional Women recently held a luau at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Theile of Orinda.

Dinner was served on the patio in the traditoinal laua fashion.

Eleanor Hunt entertained the guests with Hawaiian dances and gave instructions in Hawaiian dancing to all those interested.

The club feels this was one of the most colorful and successful fund raising events of the year.

Among those attending were:

Mmes. and Messrs. Fred Theile, Walter Terry, and Miss Jean Treguboff, all of Orinda.

From Alamo: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fereira, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crampton; Pleasant Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fitzpatrick; Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. John Vickrey, Mrs. William Casey.

Mrs. Mimi Cummings, Walnut Creek; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnes, Concord.

MR. AND MRS. BRUCE DOUGLAS WISEMAN
(Susan Elaine Smart)
Many Contra Costans attend nuptials

Bruce Wiseman Marries

Bruce Douglas Wiseman claimed Susan Elaine Smart as his bride recently at St. Raymond's Catholic Church in San Mateo.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. W. Smart of Menlo Park.

Bruce's mother is Mrs. James D. Hurley of Concord. His father is Sol Wiseman of Hayward.

The church was decorated with white gladiolus and stock for the double ring ceremony.

The bride's gown was of sheer misty silk organza with chantilly lace. Her headpiece was an Alencon lace pillbox etched in pearl which held a shoulder-length veil of English illusion silk.

Maid of honor was Lori Naughton. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Marsha Lei and Myrna McAnnally.

Best man was John C. Shaw III of Lafayette, boyhood friend and fraternity bother of the groom.

Ushers were Bruce's brothers, Richard S. Wiseman, U. S. Army, and Robert Wiseman of Orinda. His cousin, William Wadsworth of Danville, and Gary Bedsdworth of Lafayette, completed the usher list.

Bruce graduated from Acalanes High School and is now a senior at San Jose State where he will continue his education in pre-law. His fraternity is Delta Upsilon.

Among the local guests at the nuptials were:

Mrs. Peter Bolstad (Sue Wadsworth), Bruce's cousin, formerly of Lafayette and Concord flew from Alexandria, Virginia. Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Hammon of Winters, also former Lafayette and Concord residents, attended.

Others included Mrs. Hy Wiseman of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Sam Wiseman of Lafayette; Mrs. John T. Wolfe Sr., his maternal grandmother; Mrs. Virginia Wadsworth, an aunt, both of Danville; Mrs. Leslie Greer, Concord, another aunt and James Wadsworth, a cousin.

MR. AND MRS. B. V. THURSTON
(Saundra Thurston)
Bride's mother designed her gown.

Orindans Say 'I Do'

Saundra Thruston became the bride of Gordon Duane Peterson recently at Orinda Community Church. Rev. A. L. Hobart performed the 7 p.m. ceremony.

Both the bride and the groom are from Orinda. Saundra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Thurston, 127 Spring Road.

Gordon's parents are the G. E. Petersons of 179 Moraga Way.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are alumni of San Francisco State College, where they belonged to the Alpine Club.

The Thurstons gave their daughter in marriage. She wore a silk shantung dress with a train attached above the waistline. The gown was designed by the bride's mother, who also made Saundra's four-tier, fingertip veil.

The gown was trimmed with rosettes made of lace from Norway which was part of her grandmother's wedding dress.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Campbell. Bridesmaids were Roma Wells, Candy Tidwell and Patti Peterson.

Best man was Ronald H. Broatch. Ushers were John Harmon, John Lewin and Ed Rissburger.

As a sidelight: the best man fainted from nervous tension just as he was to give the minister the ring. The service continued, with only a slight interruption.

A friend of the Thurstons', John Cleveland, taped the entire ceremony.

The justweds honeymooned at Yosemite.

Mrs. John Hutch Is Delegate

Mrs. John Hutch of Pleasant Hill, president of the John Muir Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, was a delegate to the 1963 annual convention of California Hospital Auxiliaries, held at the Town House in San Francisco this week.

Also representing John Muir Hospital Auxiliary were Mrs. Harold Morris of Orinda, and Mrs. Frank E. Thomas of Alamo.

A photo display, showing the hospital's progress and the growth of The Garret (John Muir Auxiliary's thrift shop in Lafayette), was arranged by Mrs. Morris, and shown at the "Exhibitorama" which comprised the Tuesday afternoon program. Many other auxiliaries from various California hospitals participated in the exhibit.

Special note was made by Mayor Christopher in his welcoming address of the fact that "There's even a thriving auxiliary represented here that hasn't even got a hospital yet!"

Actually, there seemed to be two in this category—John Muir Hospital, and another one, to be built soon in Tahoe Valley.

Although John Muir Hospital won't be ready for patients until February of 1965, its skeletal outline has already risen in steel from its site on Ygnacio Valley Road.

On a shoestring budget itself, the auxiliary channels all its fund-raisings to the hospital building.

November Date Set For John Lee Woodward

From Santa Ana comes word that John Lee Whitehouse of Lafayette will claim Mary Gail Downard as his bride November 23.

News of the young couple's troth was told at a dinner party given in their honor at the Santa Ana home of Mrs. Downard, the bride-elect's mother.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Whitehouse of 855 Solana Drive, Lafayette.

He is a graduate of Acalanes High School and attended Diablo Valley College. John is employed by the Westinghouse Electric Supply Company.

CYNTHIA'S CLASSMATES—Mrs. Robert Neuhaus of Orinda entertained classmates of her daughter, Cynthia, who was vacationing in Europe, at El Prado recently. They are (left) Elizabeth Janson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Janson of Rockville Centre, L. I. and Judith Francisco (right) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. R. Francisco of Garden City, L. I. The two Wellesly classmates were seeing the country by car.

Brenda Bell Is Stand-out Pledge

Brenda Leigh Bell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Bell of 80 Silverwood Drive, Lafayette, is among the outstanding pledges of the Omicron chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at the University of California, Berkeley, California.

She is a graduate of Acalanes High School and attended Bishop's School for Girls in La Jolla, California, and the American School, Teheran, Iran.

Golf Garb For Women

Do women really play golf in pants?

Yes, and various designs in skirts, too, that were shown informally during luncheon Monday at the Therapy Center Terrace, when Village Square Casuals of Orinda, showed their fall collection of the clothes we live in.

Mrs. Melvin Wierenga, of Orinda, who is a member of the Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center coordinated the showing of casual clothes from active sportswear to glamorous home wear and velour lounge sets recently imported from Switzerland.

Her models included Mrs. William Magazin of Walnut Creek, a member of the Flicker Unit, Mrs. Lowell Creagmile of Orinda, a member of the Tanager Unit, and Mrs. Jack Payne of Orinda, also a member of the Tanager Unit, who had their hair styled by Chez Suzette of Walnut Creek.

The Therapy Center Terrace, located at 1475 East Newell Ave. in Walnut Creek, is staffed by the members of the seventeen units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, who donate their time so that the proceeds of the tea room will benefit its part-pay rehabilitation programs.

Coffee with hot rolls is served from 9:30 and luncheon from noon until two o'clock every day except Sunday. Reservations for parties may be made by calling 925-0121.

Brahms Cradle Officers

Brahms Cradle of Booth Memorial held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bevier in Alamo. The business meeting and luncheon was held at the beautiful poolside at Mrs. Bevier's home and the group enjoyed the lovely surroundings.

Our new officers were introduced for the new year.

They are: president, Mrs. Lipscomb, Berkeley; first vice president, Mrs. William Waddell, Lafayette; second vice president, Mrs. James Sparkman, Moraga.

Secretary, Mrs. Robert Gustafson resides in Orinda; Treasurer, Mrs. Clay Gray, lives in Concord.

Past president advisor to the new offices, Mrs. Richard Burns, is a graduate of Stanford University and lives in Orinda.

Brahms Cradle has 27 members from the local area and the group sponsors four fund raising events each year and donates the proceeds to Booth Memorial Hospital in Oakland.

Valencias Feted On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valencia of 1 Debra Court, Orinda, were given a luau to celebrate their 18th anniversary, Saturday night at their home.

A group of friends who are members of Mrs. Valencia's sewing group were hosts and hostesses.

...By Hec!

Tonight they quit playing for "lendsies" as that backyard hassle more commonly referred to as the Foothill Athletic League gets under way in full earnest.

And with the advent of the league season the time has come for "'ol fearless" to whip out his ouija board, peer myopically into the crystal ball and come forth with some very inexpert predictions.

Just why the sportwriting fraternity (for want of a better word) has always felt it incumbent upon themselves to stick their collective necks out and attempt to pick the finishes of the various sports has escaped everybody.

SPORTS DEVOTEES they may be . . . writers, maybe. Experts, never!

However, I'm not about to blow the whistle on the bit.

I'm fully prepared to march my little predictions out, just as if I had better sense, and then trust that none of you have long memories when the end of the season rolls around.

I have only one thing to offer by way of defense. If it should come to pass that my predictions are less than perfect, I remind you that you would do well to consider the source!

Without further stalling, let me say that the FAL should finish as follows:

1. Piedmont
2. Las Lomas
3. (tie) San Ramon and Acalanes
5. Miramonte
6. Alhambra
7. Del Valle

If you'd like to stick around a minute, I'll endeavor to give the reasons (?) behind these selections.

That's, of course, if you'll stop laughing long enough for me to explain.

I'm going with the Highlanders because they appear to have the best balanced attack in the loop.

In Al Pyne, Coach Bob Muenter has what he considers is the best of a long line of outstanding quarterbacks. The Scots have good speed in Tom Williamson and power in Bob Ball.

They should have the offense to do the job. The big question mark is the defense.

Piedmont doesn't figure to stop too many people cold. But chances are they'll outscore them.

With Las Lomas, it's just the opposite. The Knights have another of their big, dependable lines on tap. With such as Bill Staley, Steve Alexakos and Gary Ford, opposing clubs are going to find it hard to move against the Knights.

However, thus far they haven't shown signs of generating too much offense.

It's hard to disregard Coach Duane Louis' record, but I think Piedmont gets a small nod at this point.

In both San Ramon and Acalanes you have two clubs, either of which could very easily win the whole show.

Acalanes has done a tremendous job of converting to the short punt formation. More important, they have demonstrated that they will be able to move the ball against anyone. They are blessed with a flock of fine backs, all of whom can run the ball.

The Dons figure to improve steadily during the season, and if they get a few breaks in the early going could be a formidable contender in the stretch drive.

San Ramon, had they not lost their Mr. Inside, Mike Skinner, could have well picked up all the marbles. They may even do so yet. They have depth at the quarterback spot in Chucking Chuck Fereira and Wayne Canterbury. Ron McLaughlin gives them a good receiver to throw to. In short, the Wolves are a real dark horse.

Miramonte is rebuilding after their championship club of last year. Hit hard by graduation, the Mats have been bolstered by transfer quarterback Neal Pearson.

One thing is sure, the Mats aren't going to roll over and play dead for anyone.

Del Valle is another club in the throes of rebuilding. Thus far Coach Forrest Russell has been trying out the parts, and will begin to put the pieces together this weekend. From here it appears to be a tough job.

Alhambra has a top passer in Paul Waite. Also sophomore back Bill Boyd gives them a real break-away threat.

But the defense needs considerable bolstering.

The Bulldogs will win some games, but don't appear to be contenders at this point.

So there they are. Just remember, don't call me, I'll call you.

This week's "fearless picks":

Piedmont 28, Acalanes 20
Las Lomas 19, Del Valle 6
Miramonte 13, Alhambra 7
Pleasant Hill 19, Tamalpias 13
Mt. Diablo 20, Oakland 12
Amador 13, Ygnacio Valley 6
California 20, Illinois 13
Stanford 22, Oregon 15
49ers 24, Minnesota 21 oops!
Oakland Raiders 27, New York 21
Won 10, lost 7.

Young Conservatives Have Their Own Outlet

The Contra Costa Chapter of Young Americans for Freedom has been organized under the leadership of Robert O'Donnell, a junior at the University of California and a resident of Walnut Creek.

Officers for 1963 are O'Donnell, president, 28 Deodora Way, Walnut Creek; Ken Heiges, vice president, 10 Sunset Lane, Pleasant Hill; Cindy White, secretary, 701 Charleston Dr., Pleasant Hill, and William O'Brien, treasurer, 1977 Newell Ave., Walnut Creek.

Major aim of the chapter is to unite all conservative young persons for political action in the coming campaign. Another part of the chapter's program will be political education in the form of speakers, a newsletter, etc.

THE CHAPTER'S first aciv-ity was a booth at the Walnut Festival boosting the presidential prospects of U. S. Senator Barry B. Goldwater.

O'Donnell said at the time of his election, "YAF presents conservative young people with an opportunity to express their profound dissatisfaction with the pattern of futility and confusion offered them by contemporary Liberalism.

Large County Site For Parks?

A 15½-acre site was under construction in eastern Contra Costa County recently as purchase of a possible park site.

The acreage is near the John Marsh Home at the foot of the Marsh Creek Dam.

Though no date has been set as time of purchase, the area could be bought under the county's "pay-as-you-go" program.

Duane Mattison, the county's park and recreation director, will render a report soon to the Board of Supervisors.

Viks Seek Second Win

Two interceptions good for touchdowns of 30 and 65 yards provided the margin of victory as the Diablo Valley College Vikings upset the heavily favored Modesto Pirates 26-20 on the Alhambra field Saturday night.

Coach Sam DeVito's sharp defensive backfield allowed only three pass completions for 31 yards in the game.

The win for the Vikings was the first since the 1961 football campaign. DVC's record last year was 0-7-2 for last place in the Golden Gate Conference.

THE VIKINGS take on the Santa Rosa Bear Cubs tonight at Santa Rosa for their second non-league game. The Bear Cubs won their opener 33-0 over Vallejo Junior College.

Dave Dyer connected Art Miller with a 65-yard touchdown pass play for the first DVC score. The extra point attempt was wide and score remained 6-0 with 7:16 remaining in the stanza.

Larry Maggart tied things up when he plunged over from the one-yard line with only 13 seconds remaining in the first quarter. The PAT failed.

The Vikes went ahead again when second string quarterback Butch Rounsaville skirted his left end for a 17-yard touchdown. The Vikings weer originally trying for a field goal but the pass from center squirted out of the place holder's hands. Again the extra point try was bad leaving the score 12-6.

INTO THE third quarter Bob Nordeman picked off a Perry Blackman pass to score from the Modesto 30-yard line.

Rounsaville added another two points on a conversion run to bring the score to 20-6.

Jack Keller snared another Blackman pass and outran his pursuers 65 yards for the fourth Viking TD. The PAT was wide of the mark and the DVC team led 26-6 with 14:45 remaining to be played.

Joe Pacheco rammed his way over for a one-yard TD with 6:22 showing on the scoreboard. Nordeman deflected Blackman's two-point conversion pass to Dick Pole to set the scoring at 26-12.

PHIL STEWART added the final six-pointer on a one-yard plunge up the middle. The conversion run by Dick Lowe made the score 26-20.

With 51 seconds remaining the Vikes ate up the clock to register their first win of the season.

Dons Top Rams

Having registered their first win of the season, defeating Pleasant Hill 19-7 last week, the Acalanes Dons are preparing to repel the invasion tonight of the Piedmont Scots.

The Dons indicated that they had effectively smoothed out the bugs in their short punt formation, as they took the opening kickoff and moved 50 yards against their Contra Costa Division foes for the first score of the game.

Mike Hallock triggering the attack from the tailback spot moved the club well on the ground. Set back on a penalty, Tom Alexander found end Bob Siefker free and hit with a strike, the play covering 46 yards and a touchdown.

Bob Strains' attempted conversion was wide of the mark, and the score remained, 6-0.

However, Pleasant Hill put together their own offensive show and John Dotson scored on a one-yard plunge, climaxing a march. Dotson's pass to Bill Marshall gave the Rams a one point lead at intermission.

Following the half, Acalanes, calling on Bob Brabant for most of the work, marched the length of the field for the go-ahead score.

In the fourth quarter, Mike Hallock pounded into paydirt from five yards out for the final score of the contest.

However, the Dons' defensive units deserve much of the credit as they frustrated a number of drives engineered by John Dotson. Several Ram thrusts were blunted deep in Don territory.

Ram headman Hal Briggs, while downcast at losing the game, indicated he was pleased with the overall performance of his squad. Briggs stated "Acalanes played real inspired ball. We were very impressed with their Mike Hallock. However, we had several players that we felt really stood out. Reinhart Kleinfelter is one of the smallest linemen in the league, but he turned in a great game. Tim Conger was impressive with two interceptions and Bill Marshall also stood out with his play at defensive halfback. Greg Ernst at guard has also shown fine improvement."

The statistics reveal the Dons, with their fine running backs, ran up a total of 173 yards on the ground as compared to 149 yards totals for the Rams to indicate the key difference.

Vallejo Dons Host Thunderbirds In Grid Tilt Sunday

Seeking to get back on the win trail the Lamorinda Thunderbirds will invade Vallejo Sunday to tangle with the Vallejo Dons on Corbus Field, the game starting at 1:30 p.m.

The Thunderbirds were shut out last week at the hands of the Oakland Dynamites, 18-0. Going into their second league encounter, the local Pop Warner entry needs a victory in this engagement to stay in contention.

Lamorinda contributed greatly to Oakland's success last week with a number of mental lapses. Even so, the Birds received some outstanding defensive play.

The Dynamiters drew first blood with a 12-yard scoring jaunt by Ed Billups. An interception at the 12 by Steve Hays set up the score.

Oakland then tallied twice in the fourth quarter. Al Stevens found the end zone from two yards out, while Bob Goodhard made it with an 11-yard spring.

Lamorinda mounted one sustained drive, moving from midfield to the Dynamiter one-yard line when the gun ended the fray.

Jerry Aldridge of Parkmead School of Walnut Creek turned in an outstanding job at guard.

An auto caravan will travel to Vallejo Sunday as team supporters from Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Moraga and Danville will accompany the club to the Vallejo tilt.

WHEN RADIATOR IS OFF

If the car owner finds it necessary to remove the radiator before working on the engine, it is a good time to drain and flush the radiator in a different way, points out the National Automobile Club.

That way is to invert the radiator and insert the hose in the bottom outlet. It will drive out scale and other trapped particles.

Govan Goes For 4th Vallejo Win

Concord Rich Govan will try for his fourth hardtop main event win of the season Saturday night on Vallejo Speedway's Fall Racing Festival.

Friday night the midget race cars will roar through a full program featured by a 100-lap main event.

Last week Dave Logan, also of Concord, finished sixth in the main behind winner Govan to solidify his hold on second place in the standings.

Bob Vaughn of Pleasant Hill was the start of the card, however, as he cleaned house with victories in a heat, the trophy dash and the semi-main.

Time trials both nights will start at 7:30 p.m.

Ram Game Rescheduled

The Pleasant Hill Rams originally slated to meet Tamalpais High School at Kentfield, will meet the Tams Saturday night on the Pleasant Hill field. The varsity game will start at 8 p.m., while the JV contest is set for 5:45 p.m.

Don-Scot Contest Highlights FAL

Mats, Defending Champs, Will Open With Alhambra

By HEC HANCOCK

Highlighting the opening round of the Foothill Athletic League season tonight will be the Piedmont Highlander clash tonight at Lafayette with the Acalanes Dons.

In another feature game, Las Lomas gets together with Del Valle in their second fray of a budding neighborhood rivalry.

Defending champs, Miramonte, will travel to Martinez to do battle with the Alhambra Bulldogs.

SAN RAMON is idle, having drawn a bye. Actually, this is the second consecutive league encounter that the Wolfpack have set out, having had a bye on the last FAL engagement last season. San Ramon will open their league season next week hosting Alhambra.

Piedmont in jousting with the rejuvenated Dons will play the first of series of crucial contests. The Scots have been tabbed as slight favorite to be on top of the FAL pack when the season closes.

Last week Piedmont ended an Oakland High win skein that extended over two seasons, winning 12-6.

Coach Bob Muenter evidenced obvious pleasure with the win remarking, "We beat a good club in Oakland. They were well coached and were as tough an opening game as you could ask for. Our kids displayed good determination and confidence."

MUENTER went on to say, "That new short punt formation is going to give us problems defensing."

Last week, the Dons got some of the bugs out of their new offense that had appeared in the opening game of the season, posting a 19-7 win over Pleasant Hill.

Coach George Cockerton anticipates a rough game with the Highlanders. Cockerton noted that "Piedmont has the good speed, and should be a real good club. I think we've picked up some momentum with the win over the Rams, and this could be a real big game for us."

The Dons will go into the encounter in near top shape. Only transfer tackle, Blake Millar, is ailing slightly.

MUCH OF WHAT happens tonight depends upon how the Acalanes defense stands up. Cockerton single Bob Brabant, Larry Gomez, Don Albright, Gus Pendleton and Allen Bartolozzi were singled out for their performances in the Ram game.

The Las Lomas - Del Valle clash has the earmarks of a nice quiet family argument. Forrest Russell, the new Trojan mentor, formerly assisted Coach Duane Louis at Las Lomas, and would like nothing better than to rack up a win over his former associates.

Both clubs come off disastrous weekends.

The Trojans were toppled by their Eastbay rivals, Skyline, 24-0. However, they appeared to find themselves in the second half. Ron Holmberg, inserted in the game, appeared to make them move. Also, in Vic Shellenberg, they have another back that can make them move.

COACH LOUIS of Las Lomas looks on the game as a backyard affair in which anything can happen. "The Trojans are a big, young club with considerable potential. We made mistakes against Mt. Diablo that we can't afford to repeat."

The biggest problem confronting the Knights earlier this week as they prepared for the fray was the flu bug. Out for a time with the bug were Jim Brittain, Steve Alexakos, Randy Branum, Pete Breuleux, Fritz Von Tagen took a knock on the noggin in the Red Devil encounter and will set this one out as a precautionary measure.

The Knights are hopeful of being at near full strength by game time tonight.

COACH FRANK Scott of Miramonte making his debut in FAL play, feels his charges will have their problems containing Alhambra's Bill Boyd, a real breakaway threat, and passer Paul Waite.

The Mats have only one game under their belts, having been thumped by Castro Valley, 27-0. However, in Castro Valley, Miramonte has faced one of the toughest clubs in the Bay area.

Miramonte has fair experience in the line. Headed up by Butch Workman and Tevis Thompson, the Mats' line will try to snuff out the Bulldog passing attack before it can get started.

Neal Pearson and Pete Boyle will spearhead the Miramonte attack.

Mats Shutout

Highly rated Catsro Valley lived up to their advance billing as they rolled over Miramonte last week, 27-0.

Despite the score, the defending champs indicated they should fare well enough in their own league, getting an opportunity to prove this point tonight as they meet Alhambra on the Bulldog turf at 8 p.m.

Using the passing of Neal Pearson, the newly acquired quarterback transfer from Tech, the Mats mounted two scoring threats in the first quarter. However, Miramonte's scoring drives were blunted by a stiff Castro Valley defense, one inside the ten yard line.

AFTER A scoreless first quarter, Al Glasser put Castro Valley on the scoreboard with a shot up the middle. The PAT was good for a 7-0 lead.

Shortly after that Tony Davis found Bob Kellogg in the end one for an eight yarder and another six points. Again the PAT was good.

Castro Valley added touchdowns in each of the final two quarters to run their total to 27.

After the halftime intermission, the Mats were unable to dent the big Castro Valley line. Forced to rely on a passing game, Miramonte couldn't mount a sustained drive.

Mat coach Frank Scott reported that in Castro Valley his club had met one of the best teams in the Bay Area. Exceptionally big, the Spartans feature a power game that requires good personnel to contain it.

Tonight the Mats will be confronted with more of a passing threat, as Paul Waite has demonstrated his ability to hit with the bomb. Sophomore Bill Boyd gives the Bulldog attack added punch.

Morgan Sets New Record In Winning Festival Run

Bill Morgan of the Golden Gate Track Club flashed across the finish line of the 19th annual Walnut Creek Festival race to win in record time.

Morgan, a repeat winner from 1958, covered the 5.7 miles n 27 minutes 28 seconds to head a field of 77 entrants. Morgan's tme erased the former mark of 27:44 set in 1961 by Tom O'Riordan in 1961. The new record clipped 16 seconds off the old standard.

Ray Hatton, another Golden Gate entry, was the second-place finisher with the creditable time of 28:10. Third place went to Darryl Beardall of Marin with a 28:20 clocking.

HARRY McCALLA, the former Stanford runner, now wearing the Golden Gate Track Club colors, finished fourth with a 28:34 time.

Mike Lamendola of Pittsburg trailed in the 12th position in 30:15.

THE TEAM trophy was won by Golden Gate Track Club with a tally of 22 points. Marin with 52 was second and Santa Clara Youth Village 122 third.

Team scoring was on a cross-country basis, the winner scoring one.

Walnut Festival Queen Susan Anderson fired the starting gun and made the trophy presentations.

Mrs. Peter Patch Winner In Orinda Golf Tourney

Mrs. Peter Patch downed Mrs. Wayne Carter 5-4 to annex the Orinda Country Club women's championship.

In the defeated flight, Mrs. J. P. Thomas prevailed over Mrs. R. O. Moe 5-4.

Second flight winner was Mrs. E. B. Payne won over Mrs. D. L. Kelley 5-4. In the losers' section, Mrs. M. C. Kelley was the winner over Mrs. W. C. Riddell.

Mrs. J. E. Boyce outlasted Mrs. C. C. DeWitt on the 19th hole to win the third flight. In the lower section, Mrs. T. Carlson prevailed over Mrs. J. D. Rarig.

Fourth flight honors were captured by Mrs. C. E. Toland as she downed Mrs. E. H. Cruse 5-4. In the lower half Mrs. J. W. Scammel was the winner in her match with Mrs. J. H. Cadien.

Mrs. M. R. Colwell tipped Mrs. E. A. Baker 2-1 to win the fifth flight. In the defeated portion, Mrs. L. W. Hagstrom won over Mrs. L. W. Beaver.

Mrs. P. Perrelli won over Mrs. T. D. Stow 3-2 to win the sixth flight. In the consolation half, Mrs. R. M. Goodwin was the winner over Mrs. E. G. Whiting.

Mrs. C. W. Ford was the winner in the 7th flight, 110-36-74. Mrs. G. A. Felice won the consolation round with 98-25-73 score.

CCCC Woman Wins Round Hill

Mrs. Gardiner, 49-15-34, a guest from the Contra Costa Country Club, won the Guest Day play of the Round Hill Half Rounders last week.

Runnerup was Mrs. L. F. Plummer, 56-20-36. Mrs. L. R. Smith, 52-15-37 was third.

In the second flight, Mrs. L. L. Clark, 61-21-40, was declared the winner. Mrs. Louis Guerisoli of Contra Costa was second. Mrs. Ray Dittmeyer, also of Contra Costa, and Mrs. R. D. Honig shared third place with identical cards of 62-19-43.

Mrs. Harry Yeoman, 70-26-44, was the victor in the third flight. Runnerup in this bracket was Mrs. R. C. Swanson, 70-24-46. Mrs. O. M. Kemp, 72-24-48, and Mrs. L. Mathal, 74-26-48, tied for third.

Devils Top LL

Mt. Diablo combined a hard nosed defense and the brilliant running of Mike Schomaker to dominate inter-league rival Las Lomas 21-0 last week to close out the practice season for the FAL entry.

The Knights will open their campaign for the FAL crown as they take on Del Valle on the Las Lomas turf at 8 p.m. this evening.

The Red Devils got on the scoreboard in the first quarter when Dennis Jones rambled 38 yards for a touchdown. Terry McPhee's attempted PAT was good to give the Devils a seven point lead.

THIS MARGIN separated the two clubs until the fourth quarter when the Concord club racked two more touchdowns.

In the interim, Mt. Diablo's defense did a fine job of containing the Las Lomas attack. While the Devils threatened on several occasions, Las Lomas was never able to put together a serious scoring bid.

However, despite their lack of offense, Las Lomas went into the final stanza trailing by only seven points. Then, early in a quarter, a foul-up on a Knight pass pattern enabled Red Devil Bill Marcino to pilfer an attempted pass and roll back to the Knight 12-yard stripe before being hauled down by Dave Allasia.

MIKE SCHOMAKER whirled into the end zone from this point. McPhee's conversion ran the score to 14-0.

THE FINAL TALLY came after the Knights lost the ball on downs near midfield late in the contest. Dale Baptist capped the Mt. Diablo drive with a scoring plunge from the three.

Knights mentor Duane Louis indicated after the contest "We felt that Mike Schomaker was the real difference in the game. He's undoubtedly one of the best we've seen from Mt. Diablo. Our biggest problem was that we couldn't make those big third down plays."

Las Lomas saw several potential offensive thrusts frustrated when key passes were dropped.

Trojans Fall To Skyline

The winless Del Valle Trojans will open their league season against highly-touted Las Lomas tonight at Las Lomas.

Del Valle lost its second game of the year against Skyline, 25-0, last week.

The Trojans were not as outclassed as the score might indicate. They gained 210 yards as compared with 292 for the Oakland school.

SKYLINE scored two of its touchdowns on a punt return and a 105-yard pass interception runback.

For much of the game the Trojan offense could do nothing. The line provided neither holes for runners, nor protection for the quarterbacks, Black and Shellenberg.

But late in the second half, behind the impressive ball-carrying of sophomore Ron Holmberg and the passing of Bruce Black, the Trojans twice narrowly missed paydirt.

THE FIRST drive ended in the pass interception, while the second was two feet short of a score when the game ended.

The starting lineup for tonight's game will be virtually unchanged from the two previous contests.

Brian Frank and Lon Rusk will be at the end positions.

At tackles will be Scott Smith and Ken Roberts. John Schofield and Rich Bartlett will start as guards, and the center will be John Shields.

In the backfield will be Bill Main, Jim Christman, Vic Shellenberg and Vic DeCico.

Coach Russell noted that quarterback Dave Sargent will be able to play after missing the Skyline game because of an ankle injury. Tonight's contest will be the "Big Game" for the Trojan squad in many ways.

The Knights are Del Valle's traditional rivals.

Las Lomas will be trying to avenge last year's 7-0 defeat to the Trojans which robbed them of the league title.

The game will also have special meaning to Coach Russell, who coached at Las Lomas before coming to Del Valle.

Dee's Rebs Down Union Nine In Winter League

Dee's Rebels will meet the Berkeley Tigers Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. in the Concord City Park, having won their first outing last week against the Cooks' Union nine, 7-3.

Bud Nelson was on the mound all the way for the winners. In fashioning the win, Nelson scattered six hits, struck out 12 and walked but two. His battery mate was Bob Sera.

The Rebels got things going early in the fray, banging out three runs in the first inning. Mickey Thomas got things going when he led off with a triple. Bob Nelson forced Rich Moore on a fielder's choice. Bud Beemer then cleared the bases with a three-run shot out of the park.

AFTER HAVING picked up a run in the third, the Rebels grouped singles by Rich Hernandez, Al Lakeman and Bud Nelson to account for two more runs that just about wrapped things up.

The Union nine tallied one in the second and two in the sixth, but never seriously threatened the local club.

The start was the first for the Rebels under new sponsorship. Vince DiBiasi of Dee's Men's Shop in Pleasant Hill, formerly manager of the Pleasant Hill Twins, is sponsoring the club.

This weekend, Ben Riker is slated to start on the mound. Dan Barney rounds out the battery.

Aquabear Tryouts

Tryouts for the Aquabear AAU swim team continue this weekend. Sessions will be conducted at the Miramonte High School pool tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m. and from 5 to 6 p.m.

Lobos Upset By Antioch; Idle Until Next Weekend

San Ramon's Wolfpack has an extra week to recoup from last week's upset loss at the hands of Antioch, 3-0, before getting involved in the Foothill Athletic League family fight for league honors.

Antioch's Ron Miller booted a 23-yard field goal in the second quarter for the only score in the game to give the Panthers a stunning upset win over the visiting San Ramon Wolves last Friday night.

The winning kick was from the middle of the field and split the uprights. The Panthers drove deep into San Ramon territory three times only to be stopped by the hard nosed Lobo defensive unit.

Coach Fred Houston was without the services of his brilliant halfback, Mike Skinner, who will be out the rest of the season due to a knee injury in the Livermore game.

Houston considered Skinner as the most outstanding back in the FAL.

Halfback Ron Pritchard of Antioch tried to rush over from the two-yard line in the early going but was stopped at the one after a 60-yard drive. Another drive was stopped on the San Ramon four-yard mark.

The Panthers gained 252 net yards, 241 of them on the ground, to the Wolves' 169, 102 rushing.

Defensive standouts for the Wolves were Ron McLaughlin and Cliff Simen. The two defensive backs helped hold Antioch to only 11 yards through passing.

Diablo Bowmen Hold Red Devil Meet On Sunday

Diablo Bowmen will conduct their seventh annual Red Devil archery tournament Sunday at their range on Mt. Diablo, registration closing at 10 a.m.

A top field of archers are expected from throughout California. Included in the field will be several former and current state and national champions.

The event is one of the last top competitive events remaining on the competitive slate.

AMONG THE former national champs that will pit her skill against the field on the Devil Mountain range is Teressa Carter of San Francisco. Currently she holds down a woman's state title.

Another state champion entered is June Middlekauf of Lafayette.

Tim Meigs of Oakland is a California champ that will be on hand. Also entered is former state champion Ray Tilz.

A field of over 150 participants is expected. There will be classifications in each of the women's and men's divisions.

A JUNIOR classification will be open to those 12 and under. An intermediate group is available for the 13-19-year-olds.

Registration will close at 10 a.m. Sunday. A classification card is required.

The Diablo Bowmen range is located on Northgate Road on Mt. Diablo. The range is adjacent to Turtle Ranch.

The public is welcome to the event. The Diablo Bowmen range is one of five such installations meriting a five-star rating as an archery range.

ELK SPREAD

Elk, bear and other game meats will be improved with a suggestion of juniper berry. Either add the berries to the marinade in which the meat is soaked or rub crushed berries into the meat itself before roasting.

CCD Roundup

Contra Costa Division title contenders will use this final weekend of their practice season to apply the finishing touches to their football machines.

Pleasant Hill will take on Tamalpais in a game rescheduled to the Rams' field for Saturday night. Originally, the game had been set for Kentfield,, but a conflict in dates necessitated the switch.

Ygnacio Valley Warriors will travel over to Pleasanton seeking their first varsity victory as they take on the Amador Dons.

AFTER TWO impressive victories, the College Park Falcons are idle this week.

Coach Hal Bridges, cheered by his team's showing against Acalanes last week, is viewing the season with more optimism.

"We had a number of boys, particularly on defense, that showed surprisingly well. Greg Ernst at guard has developed very fast. Reinhart Klinefelter is a real package of dynamite. Tim Conger and Bill Marshall were fine in the defensive secondary. Of course John Dotson was great as quarterback. Frank Brazeal, halfback, showed real well also," stated Briggs.

Briggs went on to say, "Our biggest problem with Tamalpais is going to be containing their backfield speed. Pacifica was able to stop them in their game, but they have the threat to go all the way at any time."

Over at Ygnacio Valley, Coach Frank Ryan sums up the Warrior situation thusly: "We figure we have a good chance in this game wtih Amador. However, we are anything but a cinch. It's just that they appear to be more on our level than most of the teams we'll meet in the CCD.

Ryan feels his defense is pretty well set. "I don't think anybody will run all over us. However, we haven't been able to come up with much scoring punch yet."

Ryan singled out Pat Slattery, a sophomore linebacker, and defensive tackles Jim Carson and Russ Odom as having demonstrated fine ability.

Coach R. V. Johnson was just as happy his Falcons had the week off. A wave of flu hit the College Park camp early in the week and sidelined several key players.

However, the Falcons expect to be at full strength for their opening next week.

Concord Inn To Host Pee Wee Golf Tourney

Concord Inn will host their annual Pee-Wee Golf Championship tomorrow, tee off time set for 8 a.m.

Competition is open to both boys and girls between the ages of four and seventeen. Play will be broken down into five age classifications.

Youngsters between the ages of four and five will play four holes. Six to eight year olds will go a distance of six holes. Entry fee for these two groups will be $1.25.

Golfers from nine to eleven years will play a round of nine holes, with the entry fee being $1.50.

Other categories include the 12 to 14 year olds and the 15 to 17 year olds. Entry fee for these age groups will be $2.50.

Medal play will be used for the tournament.

Sign-ups are being accepted now at the Concord Inn Golf Shop.

Lions To March For The Sightless Next Weekend

Local Lions club appeal for funds to aid the blind was voiced by "White Cane Chairman Charles "Mickey" Meyers.

The event will occur Friday and Saturday when on those days Lions put aside business and jobs to collect funds. Wearing special insignia, they will be stationed in and around shopping areas.

Among many items being provided the sightless and sight handicapped are special glasses, Braille training and writing machines, seeing-eye dog clinics and all-too-scarce facilities.

Probably most touching of these stricken are the little ones. Lions White Cane aid provides the highly skilled personnel required to help over their handicap and to develop useful occupations.

Scouts Slate A Pow-Wow Day

Cub Scout leaders of Mt. Diablo Council will hold a big one-day Pow Wow, November 2, at College Park High School, Pleasant Hill, according to an announcement made today by Jay Cortas, Concord, director of the event.

Section chairman appointed include Paul Lovegren, Richmond, games; Hiram Wolf, Pleasant Hill, ceremonies, stunts, and skits; Lee Tardiville, Pittsburg, pack administration; Norm Brennenstall, Concord, Webelos, and Herb Zenger, Danville, exhibits.

Other chairmen to be named will head activities of a theme craft division and a "Blue and Gold" banquet ideas section.

Sex, Marriage Youth Seminar

The Council of Churches of Central Contra Costa County has announced the dates of a seminar on youth, sex and marriage to be held at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, 2900 Bonifacio St., Concord. The dates are October 6, 13 and 20, from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

Prominent speakers, specialists in the field, will lecture to the young people, then written questions from the floor will be discussed by the speakers.

Speaking on the different aspects of marriage will be Dr. Max Thebaut, Oakland gynecologist, Dr. Forrest Orr, Oakland psychiatrist, and others to be announced.

It's The Berries!

BERRY QUEEN, PYRACANTHA—Among all the berrying shrubs, it is difficult to find one that is more obliging than the pyracantha. If you want it to spread horizontally, so be it. Or grow upright to medium height or tall or flatten itself against a wall—just say the word when you are choosing the variety. You can even specify whether you'd prefer orange instead of the more usual fire-engine red berries. Agreeability extends even further, since the pyracantha is known for its ability to thrive on neglect.

In the mildness of a California fall, few trees and shrubs color up with the autumnal hues of colder climates. We have them, to be sure, but in nothing like the quantity of, say, New England or Ohio.

For that reason we look elsewhere to find our seasonal color bearers.

And find them we do in the wonderful world of berries—pyracanthas, especially, but also cotoneasters and such lesser lights as the barberries. When used in quantity, these more than make up for the lack of foliage color which many a transplanted eastern gardener misses when he moves to California.

FOR VIVID COLOR, the pyracantha family is our first choice, and for fall we select the Laland variety above the others. This is the pyracantha with the bright orange berries which make such a splash of seasonal color you really need nothing else.

Here are the warm tones of a pumpkin in the field of persimmons in an orchard. Plant more than one shrub of the Laland pyracantha, and you won't miss the more traditional forms of fall color at all.

For added interest, you might try this beauty in espaliered form, which C.A.N. nurserymen can supply you with, or in a tree form, which is also to be found in California nurseries.

LESS AUTUMNAL, perhaps, but nonetheless beautiful, are the other pyracanthas which range in berry color from orange-red to deep red, the latter of which are especially appreciated during the Christmas season. They all are colorful from early fall until after the New Year, which is something you never get in colder climates, however colorful their falling foliage is.

Among the other pyracanthas, look for Kasam, an orange-red variety, Wyatt, another orange-red, Graber, Rosedale and Victory, all red-berried forms. These too, are often available as espaliers or as small trees.

One of the most useful additions to the pyracantha family has been the Santa Cruz variety—a prostrate, or semi-prostrate form, which makes it an excellent choice for ground cover or bank planting. The berries are large and bright red, and you can imagine the effect when you cover a complete hillside with them: Berries, berries, everywhere.

ASIDE FROM pyracanthas, we rely on cotoneasters for color in fall. These are more subdued colors and better suited to background planting, where they won't clash with whatever is planted in front of them. Cotoneasters make excellent screens in their taller forms and the prostrate varieties are fine for covering a bank or filling a parkway. The berry color is primarily red, but orange is also to be found.

One of the less familiar cotoneasters and one of the best for fall is the Ward's Cotoneaster. An upright grower with long, arching branches, it not only bears seasonally beautiful orange berries, but provides an added attraction in its colorful foliage. A deciduous cotoneaster, it sheds its leaves, which oblige by coloring up beautifullly before dropping off.

FOR BACKGROUNDS, Silverleaf Cotoneaster is a traditional favorite and for a better show close in, the Red Clusterberry can be most appealing, especially when pruned out to reveal the interesting trunk and branch patterns against a wall. The berries on this latter are probably the best in the family—big and red and carried in attractive clusters.

Lower-growing cotoneasters, suitable for ground cover and bank planting are the Rock Cotoneaster and Necklace Cotoneaster. There are a dozen or more members of the family, however, so don't stop with these. Check the others at a local C.A.N. nursery.

Garden CHECK-LIST

PREPARED BY THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF NURSERYMEN

1. Remove spent annuals and replant with winter blooming varieties such as pansy, viola, calendula and stock.
2. Renew worn spots in the lawn by spiking the area and sowing new seed.
3. Lift and store gladious when the tops have faided to yellow or brown.
4. Divide crowded perennials such as Shasta Daisy and phlox. Daylilies are happier left unidivided.
5. Plant ranunculus and anemones. They seem to need less protection from marauding birds when their top growth starts early.

Does Your Floor Shine?

The conscientious homemaker who is disturbed about the appearance of her smooth-surface flooring may find that the deep, dark secret behind floor care success is amazing simple if she'll only change a few of her old cleaning and polishing habits.

While modern flooring materials and floor care items have gone a long way toward reducing the burdensome aspects of routine floor mainteance, many housewives have neglected to keep pace with the times. Despite their efforts, the gray, cloudy floors in their kitchens, bathrooms and family rooms indicate incorrect floor care procedure.

ALL FLOORS require a regular program of washing, polishing and waxing. Reasons for floor care dissatisfaction normally involve one or more of these activities and they often point to neglect of a few basic floor care steps.

Chief among these, according to home economists of the Armstrong Cork Company, is washing floors too frequently with strong soaps and cleaners. With some types of flooring, these strong solutions can fade and discolor the material more readily than constant wear.

THOROUGH washing can be limited to three or four times a year, or when exceptional soiling has occurred, if spills are wiped up before thety become sticky or dry. In all cases, strong cleaners should be avoided unless diluted as their high alkali content can ultimately cause chemical changes in color pigments or compositions.

When floors are exceptionally soiled and need a thorough cleaning, a good all-purpose solution is a half-cup of household detergent and a half-cup of ammonia diluted with a gallon of warm water. This solution will also remove excessive wax accumulations which cause graying or yellowing.

Application of a protective wax or polish should always follow thorough cleansing, but should be started only after the washed floor has dried completely.

The inconvenience of scrubbing a floor, waiting for it to dry and then applying was has been removed by new products that clean and plolish in one step. The development of combination cleaners and polishes and other liquid, self-polishing products over the past few years have cut the time required for floor care and have erased the need for hand-and-knees application of paste waxes.

In choosing cleansers, waxes and and polishes, a good rule-of-thumb is to use products recommended by the manufacture of the flooring. Because of their natural interest in effective floor care, some manufacturers produce maintenance products especially designed to be safe and efficient for their types of flooring. Labels should be read carefully to insure that the correct care item is used for the flooring.

Solvent-type waxes are not recommended for asphalt or rubber tile or some types of flooring such as linoleum installed in six-foot widths.

ONE COMMON mistake is the application of wax too thickly. A thin film hardens more quickly and gives better protection because of the moisture content of the wax can fully evaporate. Thick coatings leave sub-surface wax soft, increasing the floor's vulnerability to denting and surface scratches.

Because of the nature of their formulations, the cleaner-polish combination products provide a safeguard against thick applications.

Equally important, liquid polishes and waxes should be applied in a single direction to avoid spotty and "checkered" appearance of floors when they have dried.

In addition to wiping up spills immediately, a thorough sweeping is all the care normally required for daily maintenance. A soft hair broom used only for floors will help reduce scratching and will prevent dust from becoming ground in.

FURNITURE RESTS will help preventing denting by heavy furniture and modern pieces with pointed legs. These rests spread the weight of the furniture over a larger area and remain flat even when the chairs are tilted.

Roller casters are more likely to dent floors because weight is concentrated in a small area.

Deep gouges are often caused by moving furniture across the flooring without dollies. When furniture is too heavy for lifting, small scraps of carpeting or heavy cloth should be placed beneath legs to give protection needed.

MAINTENANCE of smooth-surface flooring in the kitchens and other areas has been simplified over the past few years with the development of new floor care methods and application materials. Liquid cleaners, waxes and combination cleaner-polishes can help the housewife to retain the original appearance of her flooring through many years of service with less effort than older methods of hands-and-knees floor care.

DVC's Planetarium Expert Resigns For More Study

The governing board of the Contra Costa Junior College District this week accepted "with regret" the resignation of Robert H. Duke Jr. from the the faculty of Diablo Valley College.

Duke, director of DVC's Science Center planetarium and an instructor in physics and mathematics, had been granted a leave of absence earlier this year to study for his doctorate at Michigan State University and to serve the university's own planetarium program.

He resigned because his studies will require more time than anticipated.

DUKE pioneered the use of DVC's planetarium, the only one of its kind in the East Bay, as a teaching instrument for students at all grade levels and as a source of information and entertainment for the public.

In the last two and a half years, 17,611 persons, of which dren, attended plantetarium programs which he devised. His programs of lectures and astronomy shows were actually three in number. One was designed for elementary and high school students, another for DVC students, and a third for the general public.

His ideas have since been copied by other schools and colleges in California.

DUKE WAS a design engineer for the Union Oil Company at Oleum from 1951-55, received his bachelor of science degree from the University of California in 1956, and was employed as a research engineer by the California Research Corporation in Richmond from 1956-59. He joined DVC in 1959.

Last year he served the State Department of Education as a special consultant in setting up an astronomy workshop at Costa Mesa.

Diablo Symphony Changes Locale

Diablo Symphony has changed its rehearsal location this season due to increase in size of the members. It met Tuesday at the regular hours of 7:30 to 10 p.m. at College Park High School music room in Pleasant Hill.

Last year, the group met at Ygnacio Valley High School.

Home Stylists To Have Class

Registration for the annual holiday decorating classes sponsored by Lafayette Federal Savings & Loan Association is now open. Those interested in participating in the course may register at the association offices, 3631 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Classes will be held Thursdays, 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. in Lafayette Masonic Temple, Moraga Road. Class dates are November 7, 14, 21 and December 5.

Cancer Society Installs Officers; Gives Awards

New officers were installed, 25 board members elected, and certificate awards for service during 1963, the "year of the volunteer," were presented to American Cancer Society leaders from all parts of Contra Costa County at the society's annual meeting held in Orinda last week.

Nearly 100 persons attending heard Rev. Michel Vallon, pastor of the San Ramon Valley Congregational Church in Danville, speak on the relationships of "Psychology, Religion and Healing" at the dinner meeting.

INSTALLED as president to lead the county branch during its fiscal year of 1963-64 was Dr. Herbert R. Packard, Alamo.

Vice-presidents installed were Dr. George Weston and Julian Stern, Lafayette, and Jack Chapman, Alamo.

Secretary placed in office is Kenneth Renwick, Orinda, and treasurer, Mrs. Leroy Sowers, Lafayette.

Elected to the board of directors for a two-year term were, from Concord, Dr. William Bogart and Dr. L. Robert Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Matheson of Concord will serve one more year on the board.

Board members elected from Walnut Creek include John L. Cooley, Dr. and Mrs. Bill J. Harris, Dr. Charles Hart, John Nejedly, Dr. Fredrick A. Pellegrin, Mrs. Fred Scheffler, Mrs. John H. Selley, Guy Spencer and Dr. Jonas Schreider, retiring barnch president.

DR. GLEN W. KENT was elected to the board from Pleasant Hill; Irving Magill from Alamo; Dr. Thomas W. Johnson from Lafayette and Mrs. Kenneth Renwick from Orinda.

From Richmond, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Easton and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stokes were elected to the board, and from El Sobrante, Mrs. J. M. Short.

Martinez board member elected was Mrs. W. H. Walter, as was Port Chicagoan Mrs. Alice Woods.

Antioch member elected was Mrs. L. C. Marshall. Named to the board from Pittsburg was Mrs. Ralph Sheldon.

Receiving special recognition awards for outstanding volunteer service to the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society were Mrs. H. E. Burk, 61 Mirando Court, Alamo; Mrs. Charles Giguiere, 3806 Lower Happy Valley Road, Lafayette; Mrs. J. F. Hedtke, 101 Danza Court, Moraga; Mrs. David R. Iventosch, 44 Barbara Road, Orinda; Mrs. Lyle Palmer, 14 Upson Court; Mrs. Robert Montanelli, 193 Cleveland Avenue; Mrs. T. H. Kammerer, 260 Stevenson Drive, and Mrs. A. J. Germolus, 60 Kathryn Drive, all of Pleasant Hill.

Those receiving awards from Walnut Creek are Mrs. Fred Scheffler, 275 Shady Glen Road; Mrs. O. N. Manzer, 3180 Wayside Lane; Mrs. J. C. Starkie, 49 Mariposa Way; Mrs. George Devine, 71 Greenway Drive; Mrs. Harold L. Morris, 1584 Webb Lane; Mrs. Edward Peterson, 2322 San Juan, and Dr. Jonas Schreider, retiring presidents of the American Cancer Society in Contra Costa.

Now $14,000 More Responsible

Parents and guardians now will be $14,000 more responsible for drivers under 21 years old for whom they have assumed liability.

The law was amended by the 1963 Legislature to raise the maximum liability imputed to parents or guardians from $11,000 to $25,000, according to Tom Bright, director of motor vehicles.

THIS MEANS parents or guardians who sign a driver's license application for a minor become liable for up to $25,000 for any one accident in which the minor is judged responsible.

The sum would be applied to cover damages suffered in accidents involving death, injury and property damage.

The previous limits—$5000 for death or injury to one person, $10,000 for death or injury to two or more persons, and $1000 for property damage—were established in California vehicle law in 1929.

The new limits are $10,000—$20,000—$50,000 which is a maximum of $25,00 for any one accident.

BRIGHT SAID the increase aligns liability limits imputed to parents and guardians with the minimum limits covered as standard practice by insurance companies.

It also matches the 10-20-50 liability limits required since 1957 by the California Financial Responsibility Law, which applies to owners and drivers involved in accidents reportable under that law.

Equal Opportunity Policy Restated By Lucky Stores

Employee selections and advancements at Lucky Stores are determined on the basis of the qualifications of the individual for the job in question without reference to irrelevant factors such as race, ancestry and creed, the company said in a statement released this week.

The foregoing applies to all operations and facilities of the company, and has been communicated to responsible officials in all operating divisions, and at all stores and installations of the company.

MANAGEMENT contemplates that such communication will be repeated from time to time to the extent that such repetition is needed to have the company's policy fully understood and observed by all concerned.

"Equal opportunity employer" notices will be posted in all company stores. Lucky's policy is being restated to each union with which the company engages in collective bargaining.

Lucky has notified the California Department of Employment of its employment policy and will notify any individual employment sources which may be used in the future.

Drive Pushes Savings Bond Sales

"The U. S. Treasury's Freedom Bond Drive for 1963 has helped push U. S. Savings Bonds sales up to $93,710,558 in Northern California for the first eight months of this year," according to Volunteer Contra Costa County Savings Bonds Chairman E. M. Downer Jr.

He compared this with sales of $87,208,285 in Northern California for the same period last year.

"AUGUST SALES for 1963 totaled $10,738,202," he continued, noting that locally sales in the county were $444,320 for the month.

"During the 1963 drive in Northern California emphasis has been placed on the Treasury's campaign to promote bond sales among industrial workers," he said.

"More than 45,000 new savers signed up to buy bonds regularly through the payroll savings program where they work.

"Nationally, more than eight million employed men and women buy bonds through the payroll plan.

"National holdings of Savings Bonds are at an all-time high of approximately $46 billion, 600 million," he concluded.

SPICY FLAVOR

Spice Parisienne will give a lively flavor to cream sauce.

Realty Sales Up A Million Over 1962 Volume

Realty Multiple Listing Sales continue to skyrocket in central Contra Costa County, according to Alfred Jones, chairman, Multiple Listing Committee of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors.

Sales volume for August 1963 exceeded August 1962 by one million dollars.

ACCUMULATIVE residential sales for the eight-month period, January-August, 1963, exceeds the same period for 1962 by 18.5 per cent.

Realtor Jones pointed out that multiple listed sales have increased by approximately 140 per cent during the past five years.

The secret of success, he said, is indicative in the 67.3 cooperative sales records by member realtors.

The significance is that approximately 70 per cent of all sales are consummated by other than the person or office listing the property for sale.

A Realtor's Multiple Listing Service is a 'supermarket" method of merchandising real estate.

PROPERTY OWNERS of central Contra Costa County can list their property with a member of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors and have it marketed by 250 other offices plus over 800 salesmen.

Jones concluded, pointing out that this record and method is indicative of the outstanding "Public Service" features of a Multiple Listing Service.

BARTD Begins Work On Tunnels

Initial engineering work has begun on the three and one-half mile twin rapid transit tunnels to be constructed through the Oakland-Berkeley hills between Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

Preliminary geological information for the project is being gathered in the new Caldecott highway tunnel now under construction by the California Department of Public Works.

WILLIAM A. BUGGE, project director for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's engineering consultants, Parsons Brinckerhoff - Tudor - Bechtel, said permission for transit experts to work in the tunnel was granted by the department so that the transit design work can be expedited.

Working on weekends so as not to interfere with construction work, transit engineers and geologists are obtaining rock data that will aid them in planning the two parallel tunnels that will carry the Bay Area rapid transit line into central Contra Costa County.

The rapid transit tunnels, each 17 feet in diameter, will be bored through the Oakland-Berkeley hills approximately 300 feet below and slightly to the north of the existing Caldecott tunnel.

EGYPTIAN CULTURE

In the early culture of Egypt, there was an important official known as the superintendent of breweries who was charged with maintaining the quality of the national beer.

COWS AVOID

Cows will avoid salt that has been trampled upon.

Cancer Society Sell Xmas Cards

A striking Christmas card now is available from the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society.

Designed and donated for the society's use by Mrs. Homer B. (Leila) Wheeler of Orinda, the forest-green card features the emblematic red "Sword of Hope" as the backbone of a white angel.

THE INSIDE of the rectangular folder is mat white, for convenient writing of personal Christmas notes and/or family photographs.

Only on the back of the card does a small legend in white on green note that "to help reaffirm the real purpose of this holiday season, a contribution has been made to the American Cancer Society."

Individual families, professional persons and business firms already have begun to select these cards to send in December.

Sample cards and envelopes can be inspected now at the Contra Costa branch headuarters of the cancer society at 2180 N. California Boulevard in Walnut Creek, and telephone orders can be made by calling 934-7640.

Orders can be mailed directly to the donor.

THE SOCIETY'S cards are never sold, but are distributed in acknowledgement of donations.

Funds received in this way are used for support of the society's year-round programs of scientific research, public education and service to cancer patients.

To cover printing costs for card and envelope, a minimum donation of 10 cents per card has been established.

Name imprinting can be added upon request at cost price of $1.50 for 50 or less, $2.50 for 100, and $2.00 per 100 thereafter.

After This Class You'll Want To Talk

The ability to speak before a group and to communicate your thoughts to the group is the basis of a new course in speech being offered at Mt. Diablo Evening School, Concord.

Raymond Mansfield, instructor for the class, has a full background in readings, public speaking and debate, with the ability to help others to feel more at ease, to think on their feet and to present their views clearly and effectively.

The class meets at Mt. Diablo High School on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m., and is open to any interested adults who wish to improve their speech. More information can be obtained through the evening school office.

Garrett Thrift Gives $1,250 To Muir Hospital

The presentation of a check for $1250 was made to officers of the board for the John Muir Memorial Hospital by the members of The Garret Thrift Shop, at the site of the newly erected steel girders on Ygnacio Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

The occasion marks the fulfillment of the $5000 pledge made two years ago due in December 1963, and concluded four monthly early.

PAPER'S FATHER

James Madison is known as the "Father of the Constitution." reports World Book Encyclopedia. Madison's ideas were embodied in the Virginia plan, which became the basis for the constitution, and his speeches and attempts at compromise often kept the constitutional convention from breaking up.

THE WOMEN of the auxiliary, through their various guilds, staff and thrift shop, which is located at 3331 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

Mrs. Edwin Laine of Danville, is chairman of the shop.

Mrs. Laine thanked the public for their patronage and asked for continual donations of clothes in good salable condition.

Doors open at 10 a.m. every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

An additional check will be presented to the building fund of the new hospital in December, concluding a highly successful year at The Garrett.

"We have a fine team of dependable, dedicated workers, and the results speak for themselves," said Mrs. Laine.

She invites anyone who wishes to work at the shop to contact the John Muir Hospital office on Locust St. in Walnut Creek.

Lions To Stage White Cane Day On Oct. 4-5

"White Cane Day" will be observed by Lions clubs of this area as a part of Lions International nationwide blind program on October 4 and 5 it was announced yesterday by Charles R. Weidner, president of the Diablo Valley Blind Center.

Through the sale of white cane lapel pins to the general public Lions Club members will raise funds to carry on their aid to the blind program.

The 12 Lions clubs in central and eastern Contra Costa County constructed the Diablo Valley Blind Center at 175 Alvarado Avenue in Pittsburg largely through volunteer labor. The maintenance of the Center and its operating budget is financed through the white cane sales and through other fund raising projects of the various clubs.

'Tender Heel' To Run Two Weeks Only At Curran

The world premiere of "The Tender Heel," a new comedy by Joel Hammil, will be presented at the Curran Theatre for two weeks beginning Monday.

It stars Chester Morris and Signe Hasso, both of whom are long and favorably known to San Francisco audiences — Mr. Morris most recently, for his portrayal of Senator Orrin Knox in 'Advise and Consent" and of Eddie in "A View from the Bridge"; Miss Hasso for her Mary, Queen of Scots, in "Mary Stuart."

PRODUCED AND directed by Moranda d'Ancona, who participated similarly in "A View from the Bridge," "The Tender Heel" renews her successful association with Mr. Morris.

The new play has for its locale an obscure fishing village on the Gulf Coast of Florida, whose inhabitants are a colorful and curious lot, sufficient unto themselves and oblivious to all that goes on in the world about them.

"The Tender Heel" will be at the Curran for two weeks only and will go direct to New York from here where it is scheduled to open at a theatre on Broadway.

Summer Camp Voted Success

A first for Contra Costra County—a day camp for children with all types of disabilities—held this summer at Eucalyptus Grove, has been voted a complete success by representatives of the Richmond Parks and Recreation Department and the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County.

Mrs. Geneva Ganson, senior recreation supervisor, and Mrs. Ardis V. Loonie, executive director of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults; who were members of the planning committee for the camp, were unanimous in their whole hearted approval of this summer's one week session.

Bill Volckhausen of the recreation department, was camp director. He was assisted by Jean Feliciano and Gloria Solberg.

The Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County provided five youth volunteers as camp aides. They were Kathleen Kerley of Lafayette, student at Del Valle High School; Deborah Ann Dunning of Orinda, Miramonte High School; Linda Lee Thornton of Pinole, University of California student; Carolyn J. Watson of Walnut Creek, Diablo Valley College; and John Barrows Jr. of San Pablo, Richmond High School.

AGATES

Striking examples of agates are found near Prineville and Lakeview in Oregon.

IT'S THE HOPS

Hops used in beer come from vines having a flower with a delightful aroma. The dried flower cones of the female plant are used in brewing.

Easter Seal Campaign Gets $25,000 From CCC

A total of $25,314 was contributed by Contra Costa County residents to the 1963 Easter Seal campaign to finance medical care, therapy, recreation, employment assistance and other rehabilitation services for the handicapped, it was announced today.

In releasing the end of the fiscal year report, Daniel Fletcher, president of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County, sponsor of the fund campaign, said that total contributions fell short of the $30,000 goal set for the campaign, but represented a 7 per cent increase over the amount contributed in 1962.

"THE EASTER Seal Society is deeply grateful to the Contra Costa County residents who responded to our mail appeal, as well as to the organizations which sponsored special events for the benefit of the fund drive," Fletcher said.

"We are especially grateful for the generosity with which so many citizens from all parts of Contra Costa County gave of their time and energy in helping conduct the Easter Seal campaign."

The Easter Seal Society of Contra Costa County operates a rehabilitation workshop at 240 South Sixth Street, Richmond, and an activity center for severely handicapped persons at Eighth and Ohio Streets, Richmond.

Extension of these two services is now being planned for the Antioch-Pittsburg area.

A total of 216 Contra Costa County children and adults were served in the various programs of the local Easter Seal Society last year.

Services of the Easter Seal Society, Fletcher noted, are available to all handicapped, regardless of cause of disability, age, sex, race or economic status.

Memorial gifts are acknowledged with appropriate messages, he said.

Contributions may be sent to Easter Seal Society headquarters, 240 South Sixth Street, Richmond, or P.O. Box 1172, Walnut Creek.

DVC Students Will Give Fall Series Events

A series of notable personalities, presenting color film programs on travel, adventure, and world knowledge, will be presented this season by the Associated Students of Contra Costa College.

"Yugoslavia," an impartial documentary of the land, people, and way of life, opened the "World Around Us Series Tuesday in the college's student lounge.

THERE WILL be three events in the current series, all high caliber entertainment, and cultural and educational too, said John L. Redgewick, student commissioner of activities.

Events on the series will be narrated in person by eminent explorers, scientists, and world travelers, who as professionals have filmed the motion pictures they will show.

Other films on the program are "Easter Island—The Riddle of the 600 Stone Colossi" October 22; and "Portraits of Portugal," January 7.

Open to the public, with tickets available at the door, general admission is $1, students 50 cents. Information on the series may be obtained from the college's associated student office, Richmond 235-7800.

State Wildfire Record Best In Over A Decade

California has a chance to set one of the best wildfire records in more than a decade—that is, both fewest in number and least damage—provided the current trend can be continued through the next two months.

This encouraging statement was released by the Keep California Green fire prevention-education organization following a pre-Labor Day survey of the state's detection-suppression agencies responsible for protecting California's wildland areas.

Weather has been the single most important factor, both the California Division of Forestry and the U.S. Forest Service agree. However, quicker detection, more effective suppression and improved public education all have contributed to the excellent 1963 record.

Scout Leaders To Sponsor A 'Showando'

Scoutmasters, assistants, troop committeemen, and dads of Boy Scouts will participate in a Mt. Diablo Council Showando at Camp Herms, 1290 Boy Scout Road, El Cerrito, Oct. 12, from 9:01 a.m. to 9:39 a.m., according to Ernest Nixon, Danville, director of the event.

"Showando is a one-day training event, a big day for "know-how" to assist leaders in the skills of scoutcraft through first class rank," Nixon explained.

"IT'S TO SHOW, and do, the things men teach their scouts in troops," he said.

Total fee for the day is $2.50, and includes the evening meal, as well as some training materials.

Participants are expected to bring a "nose-bag" lunch for Saturday noon.

Assisting Nixon as instructors and chairman will be some 20 experienced scout leaders, including Herman Halbach, Concord, demonstrations chairman; Leonard Darwin, Danville, rally chairman; Leonard Barnes, Concord, cook-out chairman; Ed Shakleford, Pleasant Hill, registration.

Scottish Dance Group Meets

Registration is open to participate in the bi-monthly sessions of the Scottish Country Dancers. Walter McAdam of Lafayette is treasurer of the group.

Beginning and advanced dancers meet at the Park Boulevard Recreation Center in Oakland the first and third Wednesday of each month from 8 'til 10 p.m.

Instruction in the traditional dances of Scotland is by Fred Macondray, holder of a teaching certificate from the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society of Edinburgh, Scotland, assisted by Kathleen McAdam of Lafayette, holder of a preliminary teacher certificate from the society.

For further information, call Mr. or Mrs. McAdam.

CANCER SOCIETY

The American Cancer Society points out that cancers of the colon and rectum are the most numerous of all kinds of cancer in both men and women.

THE BIG BREAKTHROUGH IN ANTENNA DESIGN!

Developed by the Antenna Research Laboratories of the University of Illinois*—Principles Utilized in Air Force Satellite Tracking

If your antenna is more than three years old . . . if your neighbors get better reception than you do . . . if your picture is weak or erratic or blemished—now get crisper, clearer reception than you thought possible with your present set—or your money back! The LOG-PERIODIC LPV pairs unprecedented power with unmatched directivity to bring in every picture detail—vivid, vibrant reception, without snow or ghosts—regardless of distance or terrain. Come see us about the LPV—the Big Breakthrough in antenna design.

WHERE'S THE HARDWARE DEPARTMENT?

Part 2

We are going to try again this week to answer the question "Where's the hardware department?" Last week we tried to answer it but got waylaid by the bottle shop.

We know that in most stores this is a real simple question to answer. It should be even simpler—because everybody calls us a hardware store.

But what kind of a hardware store is it where the ladies can buy pretty dresses and fancy sportswear (and intimate things, too) and the little girls can get playsuits and frocks, and everybody can buy shoes! We have all of these items in our Walnut Creek Store.

In both stores Dad can get sport coats and slacks and underwear and shirts—in fact, just about anything a man needs.

We know that lots of clothing stores sell some hardware—but how many hardware stores sell clothing?

We might figure that these items fit into a hardware store because the ladies' garments have lots of hooks and some of the men's pants are pegged and we have seen ladderbacked play suits. Of course, we carry hose for men, women and children, as well as gardens, and the shoe department carries both spiked and cleated footwear.

Now everyone will agree that hooks and pegs and ladders and hose and spikes and cleats are hardware items—which is the way we got into clothing and shoes for men, women and children, but this sure doesn't answer the question—"Where's the hardware department?" I guess I'll have to try again next week.

LOW PROFILE TUBELESS IS YOUR SAFEST BUY!

SAFER BECAUSE WHEN BRAKES ARE APPLIED, HUNDREDS OF GRIP SLOTS CLAW THROUGH FILM TO GRAB THE ROAD. You get the flexibility and action of a narrow rib, PLUS the increased mileage and stability of a wide rib. Fast starts, quick stops and smooth straightaways. Two saw-tooth outer ribs fight slipping and skidding. HEAT-TREATED NYLON CORD is the strongest, safest cord used in today's tires! Resists heat build-up, impact bruises, too!

Blackwall Tubeless

4 FOR $80*

Tread footprint clings to the tread, claws through wet film for sudden stops. Saw-tooth outer ribs fight slipping and skidding.

BLOWOUT PROTECTOR! Two tough inner layers of butyl rubber, permanently bonded to the cord body head to head, seals the air in.

Vertical dimension in 98% of the horizontal dimension. This is Premium Superlux height to width ratio.
